★★★★★ ”Throughout this wonderful book you will not see any painting of a black Jesus because Images dishonour God, they obscure His Glory, it is idol worshipping which is a heinous crime before God - Thanks to the author for this masterpiece” ~ Maxwell L. B. (Reviewed in Nigeria on November 18, 2020)

★★★★★ “This book is a Must Read for anyone desiring the TRUTH! Awesome book, I have read 5 times already” ~ Michael Carlos (Reviewed in the United States on June 22, 2019)

★★★★★ “It's time to wake up Yahweh’s Children! This book is Wonderful with plenty of information” ~ Paul Smith (Reviewed in the United States on January 12, 2019)

★★★★★ “I love reading this wonderful book! the writer is telling it like it is!! whether anyone cares or not!! I’m so happy I got this book! it was worth it!! I’m sick and tired of the white washed and racist lies about Jesus! He is not white-or European with straight hair and blue eyes!! and all these fake and false images of Jesus is not only a sin!! but it's blasphemy too! that's wrong!! and that is the truth-and that does matter!! it's not right to lie about anything!! no matter what it is! or who! it's still wrong! especially about the lord! so those who care about the truth-should read this book-those who don't that's your problem-not mine! the truth has set me free! I’m glad it did!!” ~ Mimi Ross (Reviewed in the United States on November 6, 2018)

★★★★★ “I love reading this wonderful book! Now I know the truth. I am very impressed with the author’s ability to convey his message in simple terms and easy to read. Here’s one book I must recommend to all Christian faithful and lovers of Jesus Christ. It’s a brilliant work of God’s anointed Evangelist” ~ Jessica Hall (Reviewed in the United States on March 07, 2021)

★★★★★ “This book goes beyond just emphasizing on its title, it gives deep Scriptural insight of WHO JESUS TRULY IS. Irrespective of tribe or race, one should really see the need of attracting the person of the Holy Spirit who will reveal this hidden truth to you according to the Author because the Holy Spirit is TRUTH. I sincerely commend the Author for this book because it will bring souls to the right mind set in other to attain SALVATION”. ~ Wobo Deborah N. (Reviewed in Nigeria on January 8, 2021)

★★★★★ “This book truly unravels the mystery of the true colour of YESHUA (JESUS CHRIST). The author Evangelist T. C. Wanyanwu, in this eye-opening book has carefully revealed the hidden secrets of the ancient world with the aim of establishing men according to the gospel and preaching of Jesus Christ to the revelation of the mystery, which was kept secret since the world began, the mystery which has been hidden from the past ages and generations, but has now been manifested to His saints. It is the truth that Jesus is a black man. This is a must read book for making of a perfect man in knowledge of the TRUTH and salvation of the spirit-man from bondage and deception of Satan and his agents”. ~ Nitika Sharma (Reviewed in India on March 9, 2021)

★★★★★ “This book is really an eye opener to the hidden truth of who Jesus was on Earth. We must understand that the author was not trying to sound like a racist. The Roman Catholic pray to a graven image of Caesar Borgia who is believed to be an image of Jesus and so many of us (whites and blacks) have been brainwashed to believe that the image is an exact replica of Jesus while he was on Earth. With strong biblical back up and proofs, from Songs of Solomon 1:5-6, where Solomon described himself as "black and beautiful", King Solomon who was a descendant of King David, proved that Jesus came from the black race because it was written in the Bible that Jesus came from the lineage of David. Also, in Rev. 1:14-15, Jesus was described as one whose hair was like wool, feet like bronze and eyes like fire. These are the features of a black man. These Bible verses and more were used by the writer to open our eyes to the truth that Jesus while on Earth, came from the black race. However, Our Lord Jesus was, is and will remain a combination of all races because He works in mysterious ways”. ~ Favour Goodhead (Reviewed in Nigeria on March 21, 2020)

★★★★★ “The Truth will set you free indeed. Confirmation, and Now I have it in writing along with Youtube Videos. The Lord is exposing on all Fronts from the White House to Hollywood to Your House. What’s in the dark will be shouted from the roof tops indeed!” ~ Dee (Reviewed in the United States on May 19, 2018)

★★★★★ “Jesus Is A Black Man - is an eye opener, this master piece carefully highlighted in details with scriptural references to some of the questions that a lot of people might have in their quest to argue otherwise. A book that is filled with indepth knowledge from wide range of research to bring a conclusive end that Jesus is indeed as a matter of proven facts and relatable references that He's Black. Most people read for argument but I urge you to read it with an open mind to learn and grow. Thank you”. ~ Wobeh N. Adi (PHF) (Reviewed in Nigeria on February 21, 2021)

★★★★★ “This is one of the best books I ever read this year 2021. Book codified with certainties based on researches. I must acknowledge the writer did a noble research about this topic. Yes Jesus is black and the writer has proven it to be the undiluted truth with his scrutinized researches. Remember God made Man (Adam) in his own image. He made Adam from the soil and the soil is black or brown. If God made Adam in His own image which is black then his son Christ would be black too. Thanks so much T. C. Wanyanwu for this great book”. ~ RD Anuforo Ferdinand C. (Reviewed in Nigeria on February 27, 2021)

★★★★★ “This was a phenomenal book. Pulled me in right away. Would recommend for people. Great job, T. C. Wanyanwu. I look forward to your next books” ~ Crystal Soto (Reviewed in the United States on March 17, 2021)

★★★★★ "This book is an international awestruck, authored by a great researcher, educationist, reformer, Motivational speaker, a grounded Christian and a soul winner T. C. Wanyanwu. I received a free copy from the author as a way of appreciating me for the little I've contributed in his life, we are determined to change the world by unveiling hidden truth. Trust me, this book is an eye opener because truth illuminates. Be quick to grab a copy. When the book was first published and launched online, I was amazed at how people from India, USA etc embraced it. Don't wait to be told. I have a copy, go get yours" ~ Daniel Moses (Reviewed in Nigeria on November 30, 2021)

★★★★★ "This book is so insightful! A combination of deep theological, historical, scientific and socio-cultural research. Based purely on empirical studies. A must-read" ~ Dr. Akaninwo V. (Reviewed in Nigeria on December 30, 2021)

This book is graciously dedicated to every truth seeker who is uncomfortable with the lies, deception and conspiracy theories orchestrated by the wicked one and his agents to rob Jesus of his deity and true identity.

FOREWARD

The author in this book titled Jesus Is A Black Man is teaching revelation, there is nothing anyone can do provided it is a divine message which is a sure word of prophecy.

The prophetic message is sensitive and not ordinary. He is proving & supporting even backing his argument with the written scriptures, which is Logos, Proofs.

Jesus Christ would always defend the opposition from His contenders as “it is written” and Satan also used the word it is written, when trying to penetrate into Jesus, as to mess Him up, put Him to open shame, and for people to doubt the truth about His Lordship.

If anyone is in Christ Jesus, he is a new creature: old things are passed away; behold, all things are become new – For the Spirit of God is in the lives of every believer (Indwelling Spirit). And God speaks to every new creature – He that has ear, let him hear what the Spirit is saying to the church (We are the new creatures in Christ Jesus). We understand the mind of Christ; because the Spirit speaketh expressly. (Ps. 97).

All who bow down in worship of man-made God, images, portrait, or sculptures in any form within the globe, are put to shame. John 4:23 made it clear that the time has come when those who worship the Father (GOD), must worship Him in spirit and truth – because God is a Spirit, wooden picture is not fit or permitted to represent God. God has no image except by Jesus.

If Jesus was a black man, good, that is the will of the Father but if otherwise, still good, falsification by anyone in making portrait aimed at deceiving the world is unacceptable and highly condemnable.

I agree with the author Evangelist T. C. Wanyanwu in this sensitive material that this kind of teaching is in order. What we want is the truth and nothing but the pure, raw and undiluted truth. Proverbs 11:9 says through knowledge shall the just be delivered.

God is not a respecter of any man, in due season, the hidden truth and the agenda of the wicked one and his agents will surface to their shame. Jesus said, if you remain in my word, then you are my disciple indeed. (Jn 8:31-32).

This book will, loose many who are blind-folded in the faith – both in mind from wrong and canal teachings. The author, coming from a lineage of revered idol worshippers through this book has separated himself as an anointed Prophet of Jehovah with a mandate from God to deliver men from Idolatry. Anyone judging him by what he was in the past, may not be blessed by this revelation.

This book is a timely eye-opener to this generation that can never be extinguished by any rebellious one. An excellent book with a complex mystery about the true image and race of the Jews and Jesus Christ made designable at a mere read. Exposing that God is not wood, statue, image, picture, sculpture, or portrait and cannot be worshipped like a handmade item. Indeed, you shall know the truth and the truth shall make you free!

Holy Spirit And His Earthly Activities

The scripture warned that false messiahs and false prophets will rise up and perform great signs and wonders so as to deceive, if possible, even God's chosen ones. Matthew 24:24

I have often wondered how the anti-Christ will look like when he eventually comes to deceive and lure men to hell until I saw a recent video of a white man masquerading as Jesus in Kenya here in Africa, deceiving and exploiting innocent victims, promising them heaven in return for their hard earned money - My people are destroyed for lack of knowledge; because you have rejected knowledge, I reject you from being a priest to me. And since you have forgotten the law of your God, I also will forget your children. Hosea 4:6.

The beast was permitted to wage war against the saints and to conquer them, and he was given authority over every tribe and people and tongue and nation. Revelation 13:7

Father in the name of Jesus, Lord you said your word is Spirit and they're life: minister grace and understanding to the readers and hearers of your word in Jesus name I pray. Amen!

My forefathers were highly revered idol worshippers and often reckoned with titles of chief priests amongst the people.

Growing up as a child in a small town here in West Africa, I witnessed the act of idol worshipping, the gruesome and brutal killing of animals and sprinkling their blood as sacrifice offered to the creatures they created in the fashion of man they refer as god.

They rob the true God of his glory by offering sacrifices, adoration, praises, honours to these images they created thus making the Almighty jealous and angry.

This act of worshiping an image is still being practiced by some Churches like the Roman Catholic Church and others. God is a Spirit and now is the time when true worshippers will worship Him in Spirit and truth.

The scripture in Exodus 20: 4-6, says God is angry with image and idol worshippers and a jealous God who will visit the iniquities of these men who bow down to worship idols made by men even upto their 4th generation.

Over the centuries, Black people have lost their power and dominance and had to learn their own culture from their colonial masters, making it unfashionable for anyone to say that the Messiah, the world most admired Jesus was a Black man.

All of our lives, we have been taught that Jesus was a blue eyed, blond haired, white man. This image of a white messiah appears in churches all across the World, especially in the Roman Catholic Church.

But as accepted as this image which has been presented to us may be, IT IS FALSE. Not only was the messiah black, but everyone mentioned in the bible was black.

From Adam to Paul, the writings in the book that we call the "bible" were all written by people of colour (Black). Images dishonour God, for they obscure his glory. According to Charles Hodge “Idolatry consists not only in the worship of false gods, but also in the worship of the true God by images.” This means that we are not to make use of visual or pictorial representations of the true God, or of any person of the Trinity, for the purposes of Christian worship. The commandment thus deals not with the object of worship, but with the manner of it, what it tells us is that statues and pictures of the One whom we worship are not to be used as an aid to worshipping him

May this book bring Salvation and healing to every TRUTH seeker in Jesus name. Amen!!!

I return all the glory, honour, appreciation and thanksgiving to the Almighty God JEHOVAH who gave me the vision, inspiration and wisdom to bring this revelation to humanity.

I also acknowledge with deep sense of gratitude all citizens of the new earth, missionaries in the field and JESUS DISCIPLES, my spiritual fathers and mentors.

Special thanks to you all who supported this work with your inspiring reviews and contributions. Continue to evangelize this Gospel of TRUTH by way of sharing this book with friends and family!

May God Almighty be praised forever!

In the ancient times, it was no secret that Jesus Christ was a Black man from the tribe of Judah. The early Jews knew it because they were also Blacks.
The Romans knew it, and the Greeks knew it. In fact, all the people of his time, and long afterwards, knew that the Messiah Christ Jesus was a Black man.

This book is a historical story of the most prominent figure ever known to mankind (JESUS) the founder of Christianity, the head of the church of God, the creator of the heaven and the earth. The book provides a detailed description, exposition, analysis (Forensic & Scientific) with huge biblical proofs and references of the true colour of YESHUA (whom the world calls Jesus) as 'BLACK' contrary to the blue eyed, blond haired, images of a WHITE messiah that appears in churches all across the World.

Although this book has nothing to do with race or black pride, this is only about getting the truth out to our people so they can wake up from the lies.

It also offers a thorough insight of who the people of colour are (Hebrew Israelite) true Jews of the Bible, exposing the attacks on the deity of Jesus Christ, unmasking the barbaric Western culture in their worship of a creature than the Creator.

Finally, it answers at length all of the objections that have been leveled against these proofs. 'Jesus Is Black' provides as ambitious and complete a defense of the GOSPEL OF TRUTH that exposes the falsehood of the man in the church and in the world with the aim of bringing salvation and freedom of the man from bondage through knowledge of the TRUTH in Christ Jesus. SALVATION IS ASSURED!

The aim of this book is to challenge the reader especially the African mind to know that the Messiah was a black man who suffered for all black and white (Isaiah 53:5) so that all may be free from operation and victimization. No nation should be socio-economically and politically enslaved by another.
Let the truth be taught and the black man will rise again from the dust of lies and deceptions to his place of honour and dignity.

Some might say, “well so what if the Messiah is black, colour doesn’t matter” but that is an ignorant point of view. If colour didn’t matter, then why did they go through all of the trouble to paint our Messiah their colour? Obviously colour matters! If it didn’t, they would have left him black, and told our ancestor’s the truth about who the people of the book were. Instead, they told them lies so they could pass those lies down to us in hopes that we would never find out that YESHUA (whom the world calls Jesus) was black and that we are God’s chosen people, whom the entire bible was written about.

It is pertinent to note that as our society rapidly approaches the end- time events of the book of Revelation, Satan and his evil forces are doing everything within their power to deceive humanity and to condition men to worship an individual known as "the beast" or "the Antichrist" (Rev. 13:1-18).

Satan has always had a desire to be worshipped as God (Isa. 14:12; Luke 4:7), and he will be worshipped as God in the coming Tribulation Period (II Thes. 2:3-4). In order to bring this about, Satan realizes that he must first DETHRONE the true God in the hearts and minds of people. That is, he must attack the Deity of Jesus Christ by deception.

This attack on the Lord Jesus Christ is being executed in many ways by many different groups. Various cult groups and churches, New Age groups, and even modern Bible translators have their own methods of robbing Jesus Christ of His Deity.

This book is the revelation of the mystery of Christ that has been hidden from man since the creation of the world according to Romans 16:25.

Now to him who is able to establish you according to my gospel, and the preaching of Jesus Christ, according to the revelation of the mystery, which was kept secret since the world began, that is, the mystery which has been hidden from the past ages and generations, but has now been manifested to His saints, - Colossians 1:26

In reading this, then, you will be able to understand my insight into the mystery of Christ, - Ephesians 3:4

And to make all men see what is the fellowship of the mystery, which from the beginning of the world hath been hid in God, who created all things by Jesus Christ: - Ephesians 3:9

My goal is that they may be encouraged in heart and united in love, so that they may have the full riches of complete understanding, in order that they may know the mystery of God, namely, Christ - Colossians 2:2

I know that the information contained in this book might be hard pill for you to swallow, but instead of ignoring what you're about to read, how about doing some due diligence to see if what I said is true. Follow the instructions that The Most High gave us and "prove all things" (1 Thessalonians 5:21) and "study to show yourselves approved" (2 Timothy 2:15). It would be a terrible thing to believe in something your entire life, only to find out that is was lie after death.

This book has 8 Chapters in total: Chapter 1. The Jewish Background Of Jesus: Presents the historical background of Jesus' Birth place, cultural heritage, festivals and Jewish traditions.

Chapter 2. Blacks Are The True Jews Of The Bible: This chapter discusses the origin of the Hamites and Shemites (or Semite). Revealing that the original Hebrew Israelites were of the Black race.

Chapter 3. Historical References And Proof Of Jesus' True Skin Colour And Race (Black): This chapter focuses on His Race with a deep historical findings and research.

Chapter 4 Forensic And Scientific Proof That The Messiah Was Black: This chapter provides strong scientific evidence and forensic proofs that Jesus was a short, dark-skinned Hebrew Israelite with short curly (wooly) hair and dark eyes.

Chapter 5. The Account Of Cesare Borgia (Fake Images Of Jesus): This chapter discusses Cesare Borgia the blued eyed, blond haired white European looking man in all of the paintings about Jesus both in movies and story books.

Chapter 6. The Biblical Proof That The Messiah Is Black: This chapter brings the revelation of the Messiah in His full appearance.

Chapter 7. False Images Of Christ Displayed In Most Churches Around The World, The Conspiracy And Deception Theory: This chapter exposes the conspiracy of the wicked one and his agents to deceive mankind into worshipping the beast in his human form by faking and presenting false images of Christ to the church.

Chapter 8. Jesus Wasn't White And Why That Matters: This chapter explains why it is important to know this truth 'Jesus Is A Black Man'.

To be labeled an Idolater means "You are among the Christian that want to see and know how Jesus looks like before you believe in Him - IMAGES DISHONOUR GOD!")...Jesus saith unto him, Thomas, because thou hast seen me, thou hast believed: blessed are they that have not seen me, and yet have believed. (John 20:29).

CHAPTER ONE

THE JEWISH BACKGROUND OF JESUS

WAS JESUS A JEW ETHNICALLY, OR WAS HIS MOTHER A JEW?

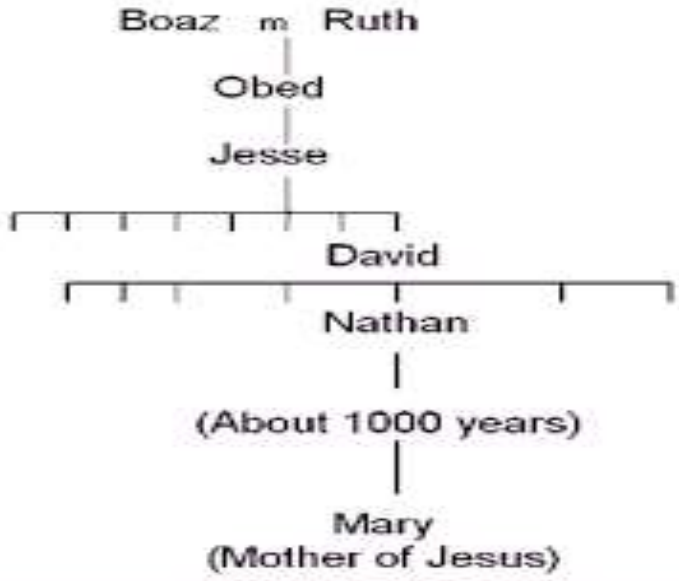

YES! Jesus clearly identified with the Jews of His day, His physical people and tribe, and their religion (although correcting its errors). God purposely sent Him to Judah: "He came to His own [Judah], and His own [Judah] did not receive Him.

But as many [Jews] as received Him, to them He gave the right to become children of God, to those who believe in His name. (John 1:11-12 NKJV), and He clearly said, "You [Gentiles] worship what you do not know; we [Jews] know what we [Jews] worship, for salvation is of the Jews" (John 4:22).

The very first verse of the New Testament clearly proclaims the Jewish ethnicity of Jesus.

"The book of the genealogy of Jesus Christ, the son of David, the son of Abraham" (Matthew 1:1). It is evident from passages like Hebrews 7:14, "For it is clear that our Lord descended from Judah," that Jesus descended from the tribe of Judah, from which we get the name "Jew."

And what about Mary, the mother of Jesus? In the genealogy in Luke Chapter 3, we see clearly that Mary was a direct descendant of King David which gave Jesus the legal right to ascend the Jewish throne as well as establishing without any doubt that Jesus was a Jew ethnically.

Was Jesus an observant Jew religiously? Both of Jesus' parents had “done everything required by the Law of the Lord” (Luke 2:39).

His aunt and uncle, Zechariah and Elizabeth, were also Torah-observant Jews (Luke 1:6), so we can see that the whole family took their Jewish faith very seriously.

In the Sermon on the Mount (Matthew 5–7), Jesus continually affirmed the authority of the Torah and the Prophets (Matthew 5:17) even in the Kingdom of Heaven (Matthew 5: 19-20).

He regularly attended synagogue (Luke 4:16), and His teaching was respected by the other Jews of His day (Luke 4:15). He taught in the Jewish Temple in Jerusalem (Luke 21:37), and if He were not a Jew, His going into that part of the Temple would simply not have been allowed (Acts 21:28-30).

Jesus also displayed the outward signs of being an observant Jew. He wore tzitzit (tassles) on His clothing (Luke 8:44; Matthew 14:36) to serve as a reminder of the commandments (Numbers 15:37-39).

He observed Passover (John 2:13) and went up to Jerusalem (Deuteronomy 16:16) on this very important Jewish pilgrimage feast day. He observed Succoth, or the feast of tabernacles (John 7:2, 10) and went up to Jerusalem (John 7:14) as required in the Torah.

He also observed Hanukkah, the festival of lights (John 10:22) and probably Rosh Hashanah, the feast of trumpets (John 5:1), going up to Jerusalem on both those occasions as well, even though it isn't commanded in the Torah.

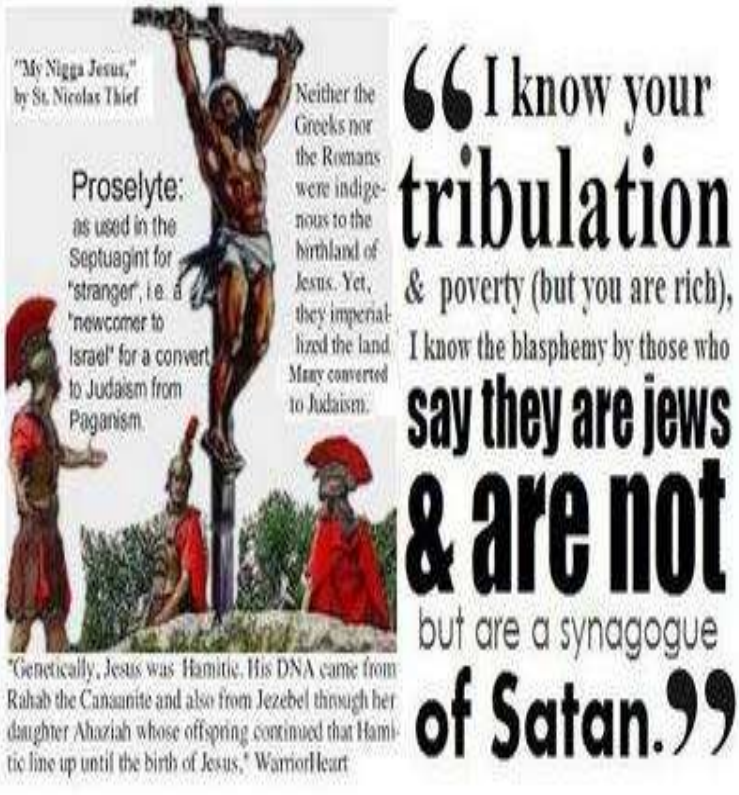

Clearly, Jesus identified Himself as a Jew (John 4:22) and as King of the Jews (Mark 15:2). From His birth to His last Passover Seder (Luke 22:14-15), Jesus lived as an observant Jew.

CHAPTER TWO

BLACKS ARE THE TRUE JEWS OF THE BIBLE

After the destruction of mankind by the flood, Noah and his wife, his three sons and their wives were the only people that were saved. (The sons of Noah were Shem, Ham and Japheth. From these three sons of Noah was the whole earth populated). In this discourse, Rudolph Windsor in his book From Babylon to Timbuktu (Windsor, 1969:p.16) stated that "it is proper to classify men only according to this classification: Shemites, Hamites, and Japhites. The parts of the earth inhabited by the children of Shem were: parts of the territory of Assyria and Elam (Persia) east of the Tigris River, the eastern part of Syria, and parts of the Arabian Peninsula. All the Children of Shem were black.

Orang-Outan.

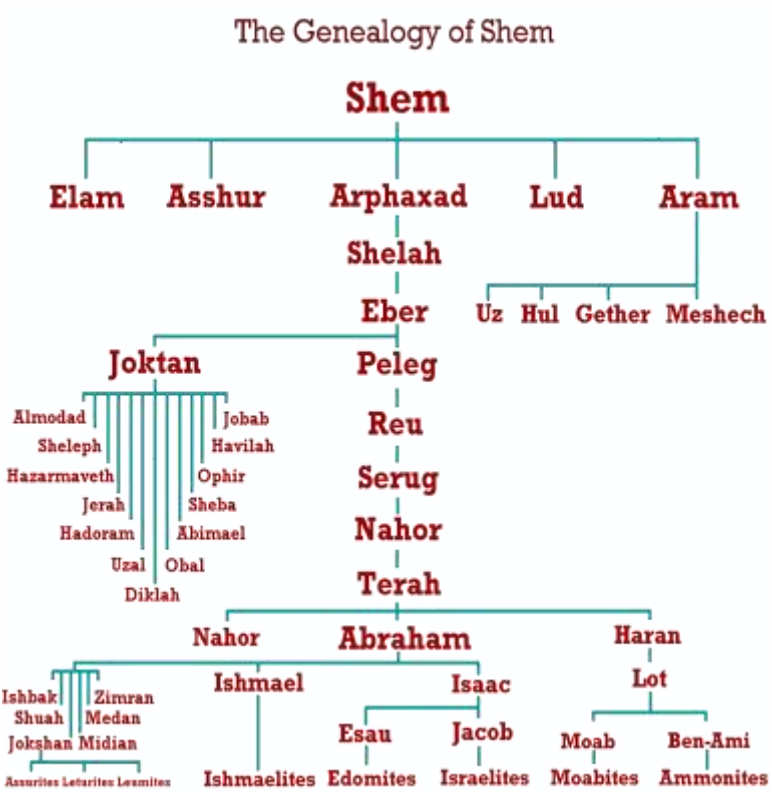

Chimpanzees.

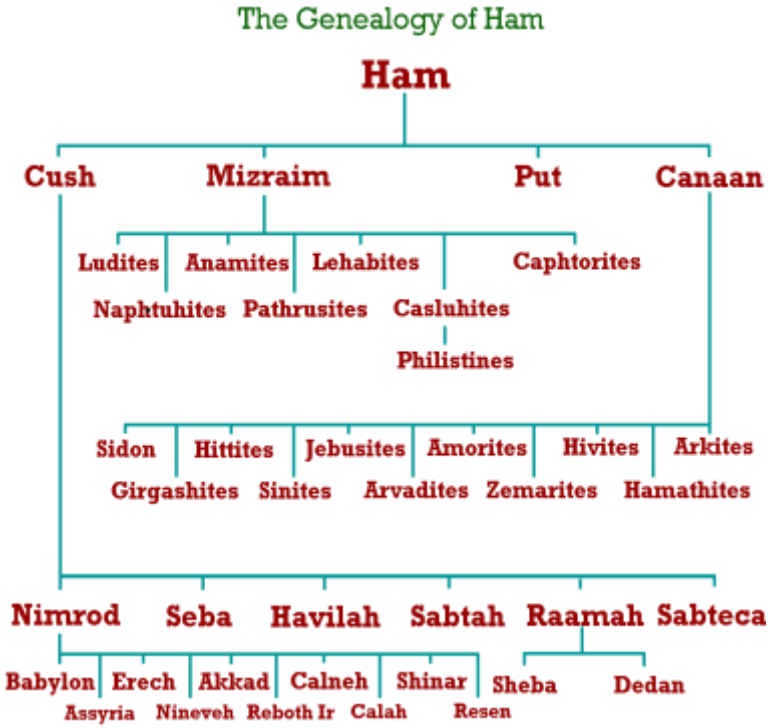

Hottentot Wagoner — Caffre War.

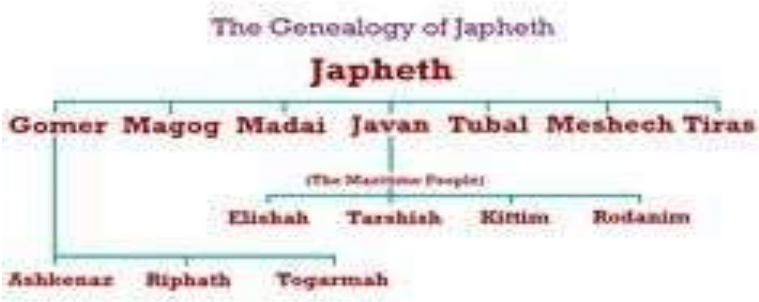

Hottentot from Somerset.

The SECOND classification of mankind was the Hamites, who controlled the great centres of civilization in ancient time (4,000 B.C.) soon after the flood. This civilization included the continent of Africa, the land of Canaan (Israel), parts of Arabia, Syria, Phoenicia, Turkey, Babylonia, southern Persia (Iran), East Pakistan, and a large part of India.

The THIRD classification of mankind was the Japhites, from Japheth, who was the youngest son of Noah. The offspring of Japheth occupied the "Isles of the Gentiles," the shore territories of the Mediterranean Sea in Europe and parts of Asia Minor where they dispersed northward over the entire continent of Europe and a great part of Asia.

After Noah's ark rested on the Mountain of Ararat, and the dispersal of the children of men at the "Tower of Babel," Japheth's descendants traveled west, north, and northeast of the Mountain of Ararat and the Caucasus mountains.

Over two-thirds of the population of the world consists of coloured people (Blacks). That is a ratio of 2.1. Two out of Noah's three sons remained black. We know this to be true because many of the people throughout Africa, Asia, Latin America, and the Islands in the Pacific Ocean are yellow, brown or Black. They have facial features like the Negroid (less commonly called Congoid Africans), especially the Vietnamese, Filipinos, the people of India (they are a mixture of black Dravidians and Indo-Europeans). Thailanders, Burmese, Indonesians, Guineans, Sumatrans, and the aborigines of Australia, etc.

There was an Indo-European invasion (Germanic) of the Middle East between the years 2000 and 1500 B.C. These Germanic tribes intermingled with the black people everywhere they traveled. This mingling made the people in Syria, Babylon, Assyria, Persia, India, and parts of Arabia much lighter in complexion. Now, the colour of the people in this region ranges from brown to yellow.

The Greek and Roman invasions also made these people in the Middle East lighter. Another fact we should not forget is that the Moors and Arabs from North Africa captured and raped European women. As a result, the North Africans became lighter. At one time, these people in North Africa and the Middle East were all black. Whites have intermingled their blood with blacks in Asia, Africa, and the Western Hemisphere. In spite of this, the coloured people of the world control about three-fourths of the earth's geographical area.

Because the coloured people of the world are in a majority, it is proper to infer that the whites have always been a minority, and that the black people are the original people of humanity.

Abraham was the patriarch of the twelve tribes of Israel; and Abraham's father (Terah) came from the land of Ur of the Chaldees, Genesis 11:26-28. The Land of Ur of the Chaldees was located at the southern part of the Euphrates.

The Chaldeans were one of many Cushite tribes. Cush means black, according to the Bible dictionary. This dictionary defines further: “Cush, the name of a son of Ham, apparently the eldest: and of a territory or territories occupied by his descendants. The Cushites appeared to have spread along tracts extending from the higher Nile to the Euphrates and the Tigris rivers. History affords many connections between Babylon, Arabia, and Ethiopia.” There is more than adequate evidence that the ancient nations of Babylon, Akkadia, Sumer, and the Chaldea were inhabited by Cushite tribes (Ethiopians), on all sides of the Tigris and Euphrates rivers”.

When Moses led the black Israelite out of Egypt (northern Africa), Moses died in the wilderness. Then Joshua led the Israelites into the land of Canaan and dispossessed the Canaanites. Now, it is written in a Jewish book called the Babylonian Talmud:

For when the Africans came to plead against the Jews before Alexander of Macedon, they said Canaan belongs to us, as it is written, the land of Canaan with the coast thereof: and Canaan was the ancestor of these people (ourselves).

These Canaanites or Africans were driven out of the land of Canaan by Joshua. About 332 B.C. Alexander conquered Palestine. As stated above, the Africans came to Alexander claiming that the land of Canaan belonged to them. These Canaanites considered themselves Africans. Consequently, we can correctly say that the Hebrew-Canaanite language is one of the African languages. Many of the private houses of these black people were equipped with cisterns for storing water".

Africans look similar to the Israelites and the God of Israel expresses this in the Bible book of Amos 9:7 Are ye not as children of the Ethiopians unto me, O children of Israel? saith the Lord. Have not I brought up Israel out of the land of Egypt? and the Philistines from Caphtor, and the Syrians from Kir?

Remember in Genesis 1:26, God said, Let us make man in our image, after our likeness:

To prove this point, the Israelite dwelt among the Hamites (Canaanites, Hittites, Amorites, Perizzites, Hivites, and Jebusites). They inter-married. “All the children of Israel did evil in the sight of the Lord, and served Baalim” (the idol god). Because they served the idol, Baalim, the God of Israel became angry and sold them into slavery.

Many people currently living in Africa especially West coast believe that they are Africans but this is not true.

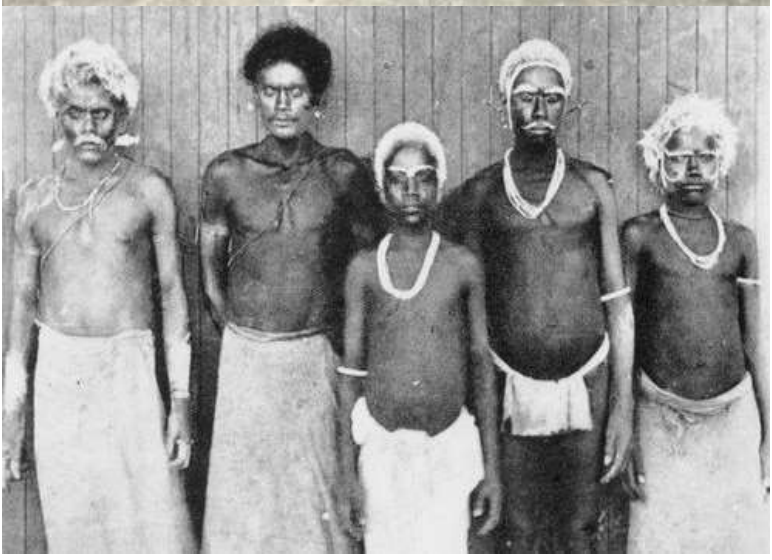

They are Israelites and their ancestors fled Israel in 70AD to escape the Roman armies who besieged Israel and they migrated into Africa.

Israelites
slavery in

Over a thousand years later the Arabs, Africans and Whites began to enslave the people of God just as they were warned if they didn't keep God's commandments they would go into slavery in ships and they would be sold to their enemy and serve them according to Deuteronomy 28:15-68

All these happened because they rebelled against God, broke the covenant, adopted and worshipped other gods and did not keep the ordinance and commandments.

Israelites in Africa and around the world continue to suffer until this day, making most of our people believe in the white Jesus given to them by whites in slavery and colonialism and the Islam given to their ancestors by the Arabs who invaded Africa after the Prophet Mohamed died.

ORIGIN OF THE HEBREW ISRAELITE (BLACKS)

“The original Israelites are of the Black race and the biblical Abraham (or Abram) was a Black Shemite (or Semites) a descendant of Shem. Abraham was the father of both the Hebrew-Israelite and Arab nations.

The Black Shemites intermarried with Black Hamite Egyptian women, giving rise to the Arab nation.

The Arabia was originally inhabited by the Ethiopians (also known as Cushites) prior to the progenitors of the Arabs. Many of today's Arabs are not Black due to the introduction of white slavery.

In many places in the Bible we find the sons of Jacob and the later Israelites taking black Canaanite women for wives. If the ancient Israelites were not originally black, they would be after the intermingling with black Canaanite men and women.

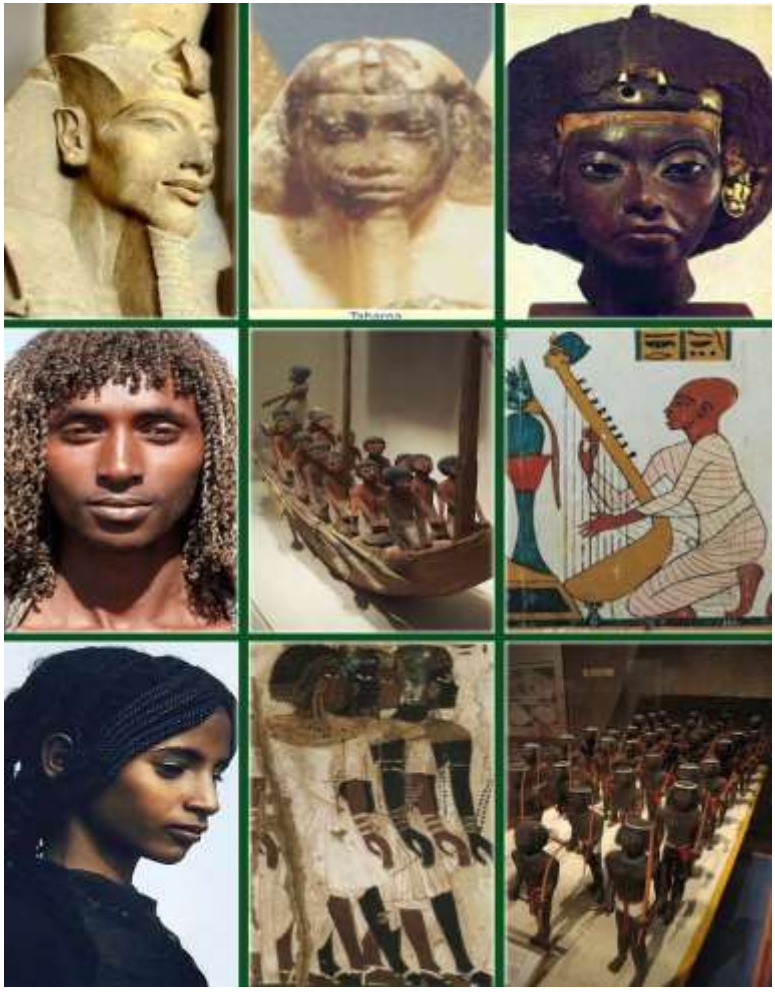

When the king (Pharoah) of Egypt promulgated an edict to cast all the Hebrew male babies into the Nile River, Miriam and her mother hid the baby Moses in a basket alongside the river.

Meanwhile, Pharoah's daughter came down to the Nile to wash herself, and saw the basket and the baby, Moses.

Pharoah's daughter knew that the baby was a Hebrew and she adopted him.

If Moses had been a white baby, it would have been difficult to conceal him from her father's anger.

In the period of Moses, the black Egyptians enslaved black Jews.

Another point to prove that the Jews were black is the leprosy laws, written in the thirteenth chapter of Leviticus, and explained in the second chapter of this book.

The strangest and most amazing phenomena concerning biblical leprosy was the skin turned white. These laws of leprosy were given to the nation of Israel and they could not apply to a white nation. Herbert Wendt wrote in his book, It Began in Babel: “All indications point to the fact that Asia was the cradle of the black race.

The story of King Solomon of Jerusalem and the Queen of Sheba (known as Makeda by the Ethiopians) points to the origins of the present black Jews of Ethiopia, known as the Falashas.

The Falashas claim descent from the child of King Solomon and the Queen of Sheba, Menilek I.

The queen returned to Sheba (which was part of the Ethiopian empire) with Menelik I. Later, Menelik was sent to his father in Jerusalem to be educated (where he accepted the name David). The Jews who returned to Ethiopia with Menelik I are claimed to be the ancestors of the Falashas (the Ethiopian emperor, Haile Selassie was also believed to be a descendant of Solomon and the Queen of Sheba).

This also describes the origins of Christianity and Islam, which are the "offspring" of Judaism (daughters of Judaism).” – Windsor, Rudolph

David Goldenberg in his book: The Curse of Ham: Race and Slavery in Early Judaism, Christianity, and Islam (2003) analyzed the sixteenth century the rise of racial slave trading in the Atlantic world.

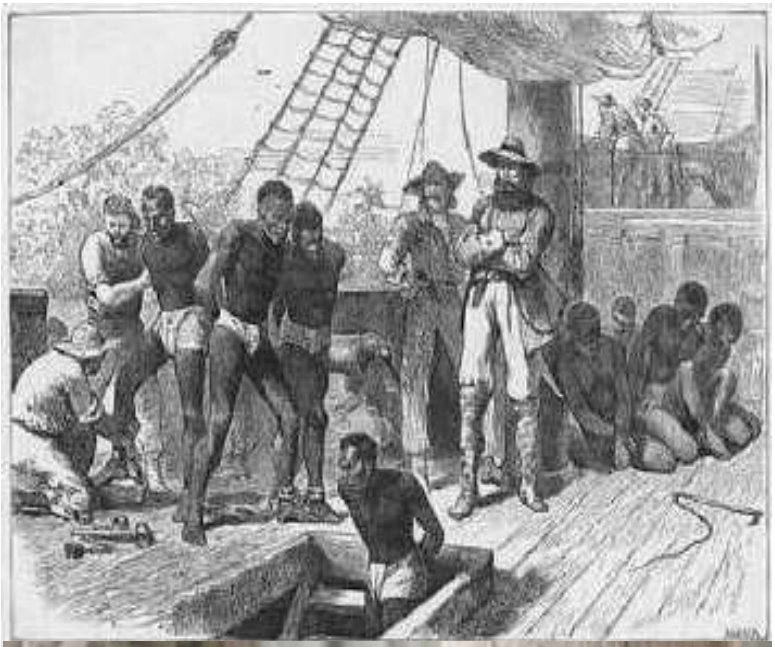

Goldenberg relies upon the troubling concept of “black African.” He uses this, for example, in order to distinguish between Egyptians and Ethiopians (he does not consider Egyptians to be “black Africans”).

This concept of the “black African” was developed by racist intellectuals of the eighteenth and nineteenth centuries in order to avoid attributing examples of cultural prowess or achievement to “blacks.”

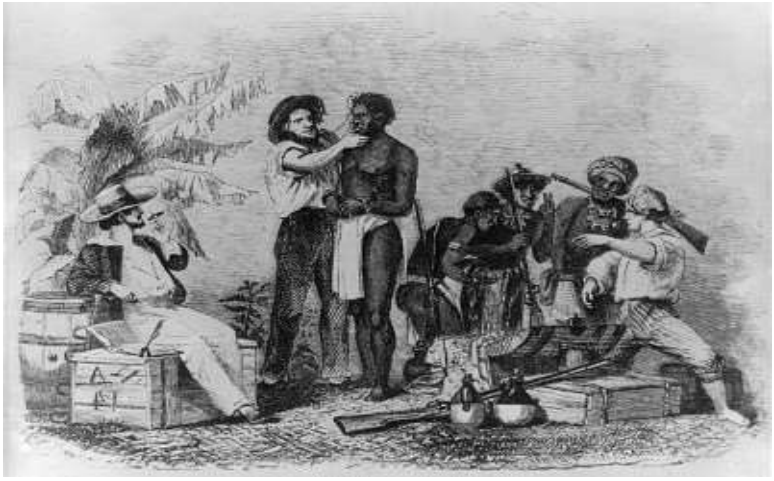

The concept is in every sense a product of white supremacist strategies to dehumanize Africans by inscribing them as having no history or culture.

During the slave trade, they rounded Israelite up and traded them to the Edomites and Ishmaelite.

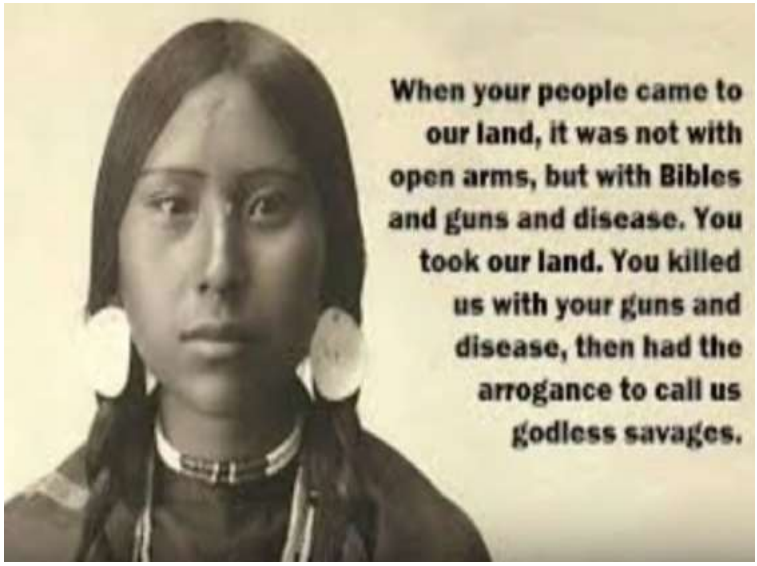

ARE BLACK PEOPLE CURSED? THE CURSE OF HAM

Because Ham was the father of black people, and because he and his descendants were cursed to be slaves because of his sin against Noah, some Christians said, "Africans and their descendants are destined to be servants, and should accept their status as slaves in fulfillment of biblical prophecy."

Dr. Tony Evans, in his book Let's Get To Know Each Other (pages 6-9) wrote: "that there existed a myth of inferiority with apparent biblical roots. This theological basis provided the raw material necessary to convince the slaves that to resist their assigned inferior status was to resist the will of God.

This myth became an authoritative myth because it was rooted in theology, and slave owners used this twisted theology to sustain a perverted sociology.

This process is known as sacralization, the development of theological and religious beliefs to serve the interest of a particular ethnic or racial group.

I knew that something did not sound right about the curse of Ham theory when I first heard it as a teenager. A white minister was giving me the biblical reason why my people and I had to endure the humiliation of American racism.

Because I couldn't prove otherwise and because my favorite Bible, the famous Old Scofield Reference Bible, which had become the official version of American fundamentalism, endorsed the curse of Ham theory, I had little recourse other than to accept it. After all, those promoting it were "trained" in the Bible and theology at the finest fundamentalist institutions in our country-institutions, by the way, that at that time would not allow blacks to enroll as students.

With the endorsement of the Old Scofield Bible, coupled with the legal status of American segregation, the myth was firmly established and embedded in the American psyche.

Never mind, of course, that the Bible says that Canaan, Ham's son, was cursed, not Ham himself. Thus, only one of Ham's four sons, not all four, were cursed. How then could all black people everywhere be cursed? Never mind that the Bible places limitations on curses-only three or four generations at most (Ex. 20:5).

Never mind that the curse on Canaan and his descendants-"Now there, you are cursed, and none of you shall be freed from being slaves"-finds its most obvious fulfillment in the ongoing defeat and subjugation of Canaan by Israel (Josh. 9:23; 1 Kings 9:20-21).

Never mind that the descendants of Ham's other sons-Cush, Mizraim, and Put-have continued to this day as national peoples in Ethiopia (Cush), Egypt (Mizraim), and Libya (Put). And never mind that God says that curses based on disobedience are reversed when people repent and turn again to obedience (Ex. 20:6). This is certainly sufficient to negate the Christian endorsement of the American enslavement of black Christians. Myths, however, do not need facts; they simply need supporters. Because the myth of inferiority needed as much theological support as possible to make it stick, some Christians turned to the New Testament to corroborate the Old Testament verses on masters and slaves.

These people quoted biblical passages on slaves submitting to their masters (e.g., Eph. 6:5-8; Col. 3:22) to contemporize the myth to the economic framework of the New World.

The Puritans were attempting to turn America into the "city set on a hill," the manifestation of the prophesied kingdom of God on earth. Slavery provided an economic base for implementing this theology, even among some of the theological and religious heroes of the colonial era.

Some of the noted New England leaders who endorsed this perspective of slavery were George Whitefield, John Davenport, Evera Styles, and Jonathan Edwards.

They attempted to teach the slaves to docilely accept their inferior status, for to do so was the will of God. To fail to do so was to rebel against God and risk eternal punishment.

With this comprehensive "biblical" strategy, the myth of inferiority took theological wings. These Christians forgot that the apostle Paul told masters to treat converted slaves as equal brothers in Christ (Philem. 1:15-16). They forgot that the apostle Paul said that slaves had the right to try to change their status (1 Cor. 7:21). And they forgot that the masters' authority over slaves was limited.

It was not within the mater's rights to treat a slave in an inhumane manner. Masters were to apply the Golden Rule to slaves and were not to treat them as children of a lesser god. The God who rules both heaven and earth will show no partiality to those who commit evil against humankind, whether slave or free.

The colonial Christians forgot Paul's writing to the Ephesians, which says, "For He Himself is our peace, who has made both one, and has broken down the middle wall of separation, having abolished in His flesh the enmity" (Eph. 2:14-15).

Barriers no longer exist between people's fellowship with God or each other, Paul said, they forgot the biblical truth that to be members of the body of Christ means that preferences based on class, culture, or race are totally unacceptable to God, and people who make such preferences are candidates for His judgment (James 2:9-13). Such biblical data, however, would not support the inferiority myth. Adding such biblical references would be telling the whole truth, and truth and myth do not mix very well. Therefore, early Americans had to be selective about what Bible verses to use to establish a theological basis to justify slavery and perpetuate the inferiority myth".

Jeremiah 17:4

Through your own fault you will lose the inheritance I gave you. I will enslave you to your enemies in a land you do not know, for you have kindled my anger, and it will burn forever.

The word gospel means 'Good news'

The good news for all Israelite is that our punishment is over long ago by the atoning blood of the Lamb of God. (Hebrews 10:4) Hallelujah!

The punishment of your iniquity is accomplished, O daughter of Zion; he will no more carry you away into captivity: he will punish your iniquity, O daughter of Edom; he will uncover your sins. (Lamentations 4:22)

Comfort ye, comfort ye my people, saith your God. Speak ye comfortably to Jerusalem, and cry unto her, that her warfare is accomplished, that her iniquity is pardoned: for she hath received of the LORD'S hand double for all her sins. (Isaiah 40:1&2)

“There is more than enough evidence to prove that all the original Israelites were black, including the surrounding nations in the Middle East: we must consider the evidence that the Dravidians were the original black people of India;

that the Cushites (Ethiopians) inhabited the southern Mesopotamian Valley (Genesis 10:15-19); that Abraham and Ishmael married African women (Egyptians) (Genesis 16:1-16; 21:8-21); that the Canaanites belong to the African family of nations (Amos 9:7); that ancient Israel intermarried with these black Canaanite tribes; at the time that Joseph was viceroy of Egypt his brothers could not distinguish him from the black Egyptians because Joseph was black (Genesis 45:1-28); after Pharaoh promulgated the cruel decree to extirpate the Hebrew males, only a black Moses would have been able to be concealed effectively for any length of time among black Egyptians (Exodus 1:8 - 2:10); that Daniel had a dream of an anthropomorphous God with woolly hair African features (Daniel 7:9); that biblical leprosy laws of the time could apply only to a very dark people with black hair (Leviticus 13).

The black Jews of India, Abyssinia (Ethiopia), and West Africa consider themselves the original Jews because of the purity of their Israelite blood (Psalm 78:51; 105:23,27; 106:22; 1 Chronicles 4:40); this has been stated by Allen H. Godbey and documented in the book From Babylon to Timbuktu by Windsor, Rudolph (1969:p.35-36)".

WHAT YOU SHOULD KNOW!

In questions of historical controversy only the most careful consideration of evidence should satisfy us.

There has been tremendous effort to conceal how Jesus looks and if you look at the early paintings from the Orthodox Church he was painted as a dark skin man!

But when Icons became illegal many painting of the Apostles and Jesus Christ got burned and when they made Icons legal again they changed their entire appearance but that is common knowledge amongst Scholars.

To say that the early pictures and images of the Virgin Mary and the infant Jesus represent them with black complexions is not enough.

Our statement must be backed up by archaeological evidence. This evidence, fortunately, was collected by the Great British Orientalist, Sir Godfrey Higgins, and has been preserved for posterity in his monumental work, The Anacalypsis, or An Inquiry into the Origin of Languages, Nations and Religions.

Sir Godfrey Higgins informs us that "In all the Romish (Catholic) countries of Europe, France, Italy, Germany, etc., the God Christ, as well as his mother, are described in their old pictures to be black.

The infant God in the arms of his black mother, his eyes and drapery white, is himself perfectly black. If the reader doubts my word he may go to the Cathedral at Moulins—to the famous Chapel of the Virgin at Loretto—to the Church of the Annunciata—the Church at St. Lazaro or the Church of St. Stephen at Genoa—to St. Francisco at Pisa—to the Church at Brixen in Tyrol and to that at Padua—to the Church of St. Theodore at Munich—to the Cathedral at Augsburg, where a black virgin and child as large as life—to Rome and the Borghese chapel of Maria Maggiore—to the Pantheon—to a small chapel of St. Peters on the right hand side on entering, near the door; and in fact, to almost innumerable other churches in countries professing the Romish religion.

There is scarcely an old church in Italy where some remains of the worship of the black virgin and black child are not to be met with.

Very often the black figures have given way to white ones and in these cases the black ones, as being held sacred, were put into retired places in the churches, but were not destroyed, and are yet to be found there.

When the circumstance has been named to the Romish priests they have endeavored to disguise the fact by pretending that the child had become black by the smoke of candles; but it was black where the smoke of a candle never came and, besides, how came the candles not to blacken the white of the eyes, the teeth and the shirt, and to redden the lips?

Their real blackness is not to be questioned. A black virgin and child among the white Germans, Swiss, French and Italians"

Mary the mother of Jesus was an African woman and Jesus took his mother's DNA He is African... Africans come in many shades… Abraham, Moses, David, King Solomon, Enoch, Isaiah too and many more Israelite holy African men. The First Children of The Most High are African men and women. But I understand the hate and deception theory.... Jesus said: “If the world hate you, ye know that it hated me before it hated you” (John 15:18-27)

In t*he* Anacalypsis, Vol. I, Book IV, Chap.I; Mr. J.A. Rogers, the well-known traveler and journalist, has seen quite a large number of these black images of the Madonna and infant in his European travels and has discovered that some of the images possess African features. Evidently early Christians must have thought that Jesus Christ was a member of the Ethiopian race or they would not have so stressed the dark hue of the skin of the Savior and his mother in their pictures and statues.

According to Christian dogma, Jesus is the Son of God. Since children are, as a rule, similar in complexion to their parents it is reasonable to assume that God also is black. This conclusion is both logical and scientific.

There is a strong reason to think, "declares Joseph McCabe, "that man was at first very dark of skin, wooly haired and flat nosed."

And since the bible tells us that man was created in God's image, then beyond all doubt God must be of dark complexion with unmistakably African features.

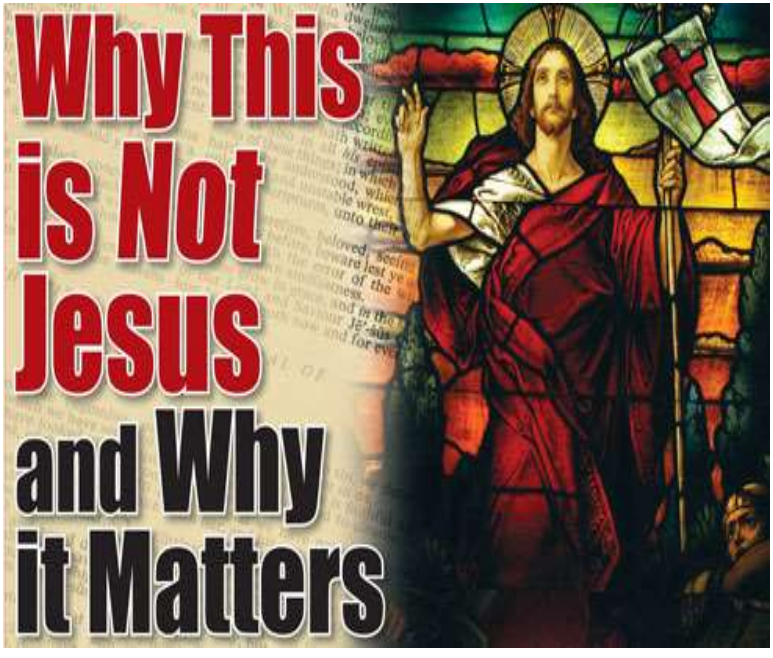

Some of my friends have suggested that should it be generally believed in the United States that either Jesus or Jehovah was of sable hue (dark) that the Christian church would soon go out of business.

They reason that white citizens of the nation, on account of race prejudice, would have absolutely no use for a black God: and the coloured citizens would not have any confidence in an Ethiopian God who had so long neglected his own race of people.

However, I do not think such a situation will come to pass, for the overwhelming majority of people do not believe what is plausible or what is true; they believe what is comforting or pleasing".

CHAPTER THREE

HISTORICAL REFERENCES AND PROOF OF JESUS' TRUE SKIN COLOUR AND RACE (BLACK)

WHITE WASHING BLACK HISTORY

Prior to the 1400's, the ruling nation of Europe and all of the known world worshiped a black Messiah. From the first century of when the messiah hit the scene preaching the good news to the Israelites, all the way up until the late 1400's when black people were ruling Europe; everyone living during those time periods were very aware that YESHUA, whom the world now calls Jesus, was a black man.

Many well noted history books such as From Babylon to Timbuktu, The Black Hebrews and The Black Christ, Blacked Out Through Whitewashed, etc. that document the history of the different nations of people who lived in ancient times, all attest to the fact that the Hebrew Messiah of the bible was indeed a black man. It wasn't until the year 1492, when the Romans conquered the Moors (Hebrew Israelites from the tribe of Judah who were ruling Europe) that the image of the Messiah began to change from black to white.

With the Moors out of the picture, the Europeans immediately began whitewashing all of the black history in Europe, replacing all of the original black images of the Messiah and our people, with white images of their people; to instill White Supremacy throughout Europe.

To make matters worse, the blacks who were now considered second class citizens, were forbidden to educate themselves and had to learn their history from their oppressors.

This would further destroy them because the only way that black people would be able to learn, would now be through images.

According to David Freedberg, in his work: The Power of Images, "Pictures were justified because they were the books of the illiterate…and writers like Martin Luther [a white Christian] emphasized the value of pictures which showed histories. Histories, in the broad sense, meant pictures and sculptures with narrative subjects from the Bible."

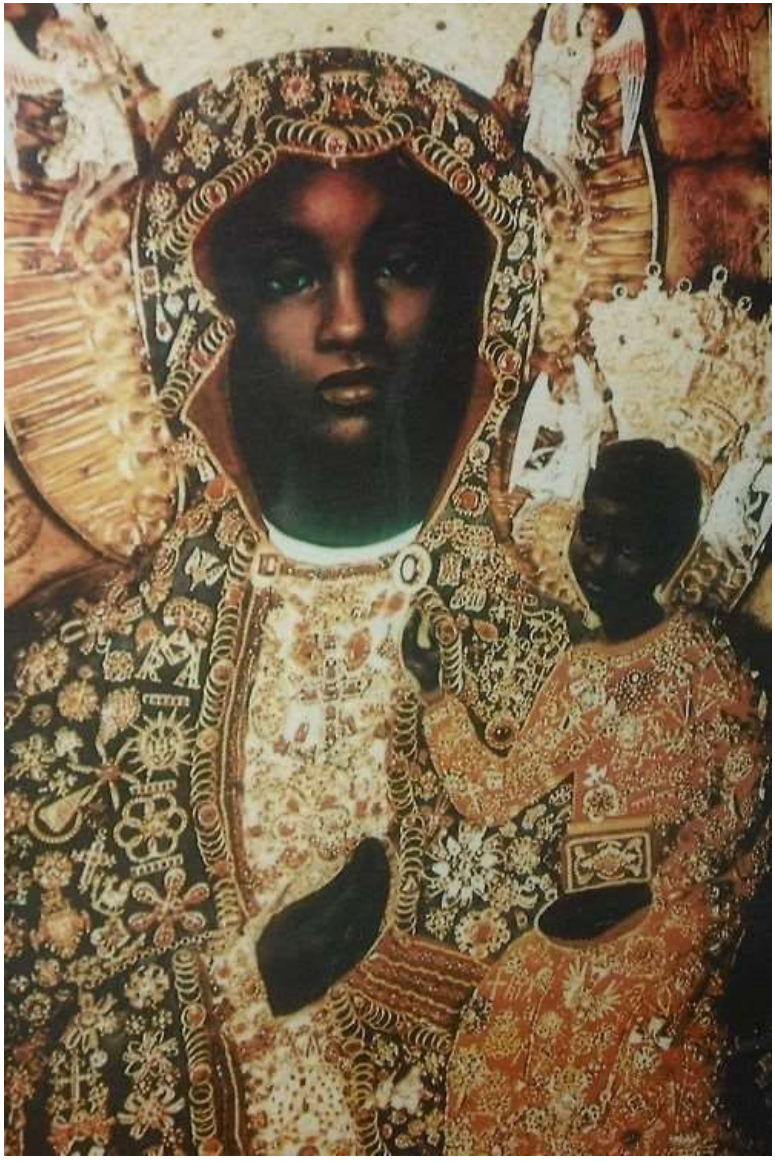

So after the Hebrews that were living in Europe were conquered, the new class of illiterate blacks had to learn a whitewashed history; a history they would not know was originally their own.

This method of brainwashing through whitewashing then became the norm, and spread from Europe all the way to the Americas. When the Europeans took our ancestors from the coast of Africa and brought us to the foreign lands of the Americas; the first thing they did was brainwash our minds.

They stripped us of our identity, gave us new names, forbade us from speaking our Hebrew language, forbade us from worshiping Yahweh and even forbade us to read the bible so we couldn't discover the truth.

The religion of the Christianity and the image of a White Jesus was then forced upon our ancestors, and as time passed; our people forgot who they were and accepted the culture of America, its Christian religion, and its white Jesus.

They then passed their beliefs down to us, causing us to believe that the Messiah was white too.

By convincing us that the son of God was white; we automatically associated whiteness with superiority and blackness with inferiority.

They then used our low self-esteem against us, to make us think that we should be grateful to be the slaves of a white man. Although we are no longer slaves, many of our people still have this mentality today where they feel privileged and honoured to be in the presence of a white man.

They do this because it has been embedded into their minds through religious programming that God is white; therefore his people must be white. But none of these lies that White America has taught us is true, especially about the colour of YESHUA (JESUS).

CHAPTER FOUR

FORENSIC AND SCIENTIFIC PROOF THAT THE MESSIAH WAS BLACK

The famous first century writer Josephus (37-100 A.D.) penned the earliest non-biblical testimony of whom we now call Jesus.

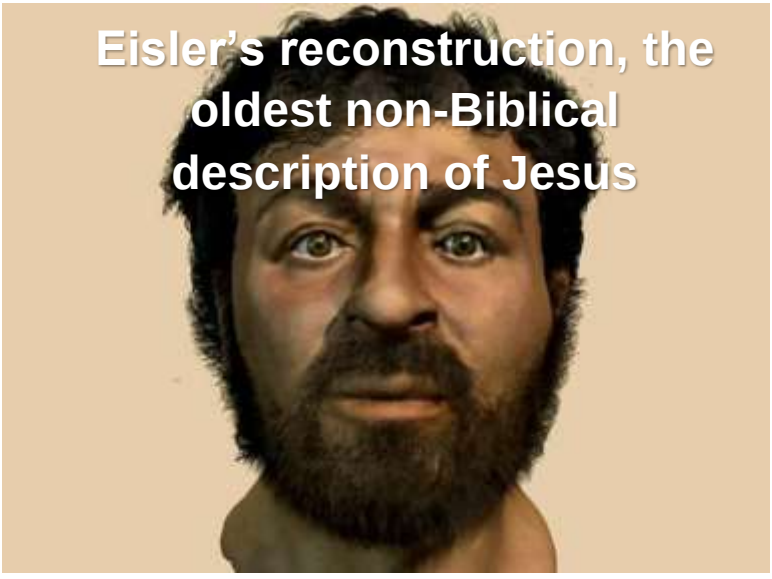

Josephus was a (black) Jew who lived around the time of the Messiah and he reportedly had access to official Roman records in which he based his information and his work from.

In his work, “the human form of Jesus and his wonderful works”, Josephus discussed the true colour of the messiah being black. However, his texts were passed through the hands of (white) European Christian leaders who altered them to hide the truth about the messiah and who His people were. Fortunately, however, Biblical scholar Robert Eisler in a classic 1931 study of “Josephus’s Testimony” was able to reconstruct the unaltered testimony based on a newly-discovered Old Russian translation that preserved the original Greek text. According to Eisler’s reconstruction, the oldest non-Biblical description of Jesus read as follows:

“At that time also there appeared a certain man of magic power … if it be meet to call him a man, [whose name is Jesus], whom [certain] Greeks call a son of [a] God, but his disciples [call] the true prophet … he was a man of simple appearance, mature age, black-skinned (melagchrous), short growth, three cubits tall, hunchbacked, prognathous (lit. ‘with a long face’ [macroprosopos]), a long nose, eyebrows meeting above the nose

… with scanty [curly] hair, but having a line in the middle of the head after the fashion of the Nazaraeans, with an undeveloped beard."

This short, black-skinned, mature, hunchbacked Jesus with a unibrow, short curly hair and undeveloped beard bears no resemblance to the Jesus Christ taken for granted today by most of the Christian world: the tall, long haired, long bearded, white-skinned and blue eyed Son of God. Yet, this earliest textual record matches well the earliest iconographic evidence.

The earliest visual depiction of Jesus is a painting that was found in 1921 on a wall of the baptismal chamber of the house-church at Dura Europos, Syria and dated around 235 A.D. This picture of Jesus is called “Healing the Paralytic Man” (Mark 2:1-12) and displays him as being short and dark-skinned with a small curly afro. This description has now been supported by the new science of forensic anthropology.

In 2002 British forensic scientists and Israeli archaeologists reconstructed what they believe is the most accurate image of Jesus based off of data obtained from the mulch-disciplinary approach.

In December 2002 Popular Science Magazine published a cover story on the findings which confirm that Jesus would have been short, around 5’7-5’9, hair “short with tight curls,” a weather-beaten face “which would have made him appear older,” dark eyes and complexion: “he probably looked a great deal more like a dark-skinned Semite than Westerners are used to seeing,” they concluded.

The textual, visual, and scientific evidence agrees, then: Jesus likely was a short, dark-skinned Hebrew Israelite with short curly (wooly) hair and dark eyes.

HOW HAVE DEPICTIONS OF JESUS CHANGED OVER THE CENTURIES?

Some of the earliest known artistic representations of Jesus date to the mid-third century A.D., more than two centuries after his death. These are the paintings in the ancient catacombs of St. Domitilla in Rome, first discovered some 400 years ago.

Reflecting one of the most common images of Jesus at the time, the paintings depict Jesus as the Good Shepherd, a young, short-haired, beardless man with a lamb around his shoulders. The restored fresco depicting Jesus and his apostles in the Roman catacomb of Santa Domitilla.

Another rare early portrait of Jesus was discovered in 2018 on the walls of a ruined church in southern Israel. Painted in the sixth century A.D., it is the earliest known image of Christ found in Israel, and portrays him with shorter, curly hair, a depiction that was common to the eastern region of the Byzantine empire—especially in Egypt and the Syria-Palestine region—but disappeared from later Byzantine art. The long-haired, bearded image of Jesus that emerged beginning in the fourth century A.D. was influenced heavily by representations of Greek and Roman gods, particularly the all-powerful Greek god Zeus.

At that point, Jesus started to appear in a long robe, seated on a throne (such as in the fifth-century mosaic on the altar of the Santa Pudenziana church in Rome), sometimes with a halo surrounding his head.

“The point of these images was never to show Jesus as a man, but to make theological points about who Jesus was as Christ (King, Judge) and divine Son,” Joan Taylor, professor of Christian origins and second temple Judaism at King's College London, wrote in The Irish Times. “They have evolved over time to the standard ‘Jesus’ we recognize.”

Of course, not all images of Jesus conform to the dominant image of him portrayed in Western art. In fact, many different cultures around the world have depicted him, visually at least, as one of their own.

“Cultures tend to portray prominent religious figures to look like the dominant racial identity,” Cargill explains.

SCIENTIFIC RESEARCH

In 2001, the retired medical artist Richard Neave led a team of Israeli and British forensic anthropologists and computer programmers in creating a new image of Jesus, based on an Israeli skull dating to the first century A.D., computer modeling and their knowledge of what Jewish people looked like at the time.

Though no one claims it's an exact reconstruction of what Jesus himself actually looked like, scholars consider this image—around five feet tall, with darker skin, dark eyes, and shorter, curlier hair—to be more accurate than many artistic depictions of the son of God.In her 2018 book What Did Jesus Look Like?, Taylor used archaeological remains, historical texts and ancient Egyptian funerary art to conclude that, like most people in Judea and Egypt around the time, Jesus most likely had brown eyes, dark brown to black hair and olive-brown skin.

He may have stood about 5-ft.-5-in. (166 cm) tall, the average man's height at the time.

While Cargill agrees that these more recent images of Jesus—including darker, perhaps curlier hair, darker skin and dark eyes—probably come closer to the truth, he stresses that we can never really know exactly what Jesus looked like.

"What did Jewish Galileans look like 2,000 years ago?" he asks. "That's the question. They probably didn't have blue eyes and blond hair."

CHAPTER FIVE

THE ACCOUNT OF CESARE BORGIA

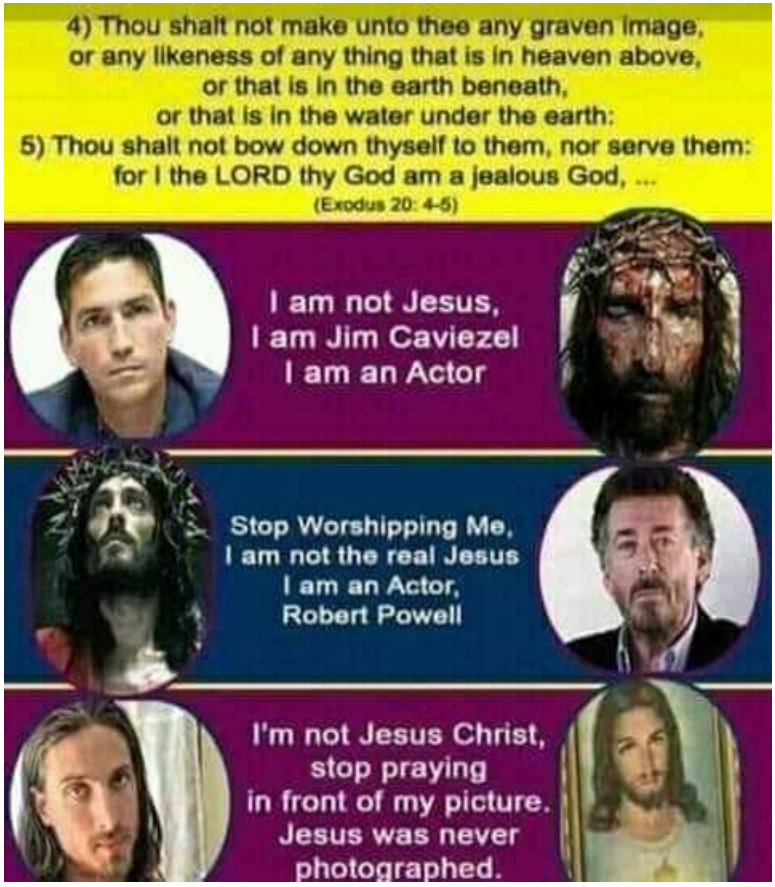

(FAKE IMAGES OF JESUS)

Now that we have traced back the historical figure and colour of YESHUA (whom the world calls Jesus) as being black, then just who is the blued eyed, blond haired white European looking man in all of the paintings and movies?

"For the wrath of God is revealed from heaven against all ungodliness and unrighteousness of men, who suppress the truth in unrighteousness, because what may be known of God is manifest in them, for God has shown it to them. For since the creation of the world His invisible attributes are clearly seen, being understood by the things that are made, even His eternal power and Godhead, so that they are without excuse, because, although they knew God, they did not glorify Him as God, nor were thankful, but became futile in their thoughts, and their foolish hearts were darkened.

Professing to be wise, they became fools, and changed the glory of the incorruptible God into an image made like corruptible man and birds and four-footed animals and creeping things. Therefore God also gave them up to uncleanness, in the lusts of their hearts, to dishonor their bodies among themselves, who exchanged the truth of God for the lie, and worshiped and served the creature rather than the Creator, who is blessed forever. Amen. (Romans 1:18-25)".

All of the images and paintings that were displayed in churches today are of a guy by the name of Caesar (or Cesare Borgia). In case you've never heard of this name before, Cesare Borgia was an Italian Mobster and Captain in the Papal Military during the 1500's. He was also the son of Pope Alexander VI, of Rome.

In an effort to keep black slaves oppressed so that they could sustain their rulership in Rome, Pope Alexander VI hired Leonardo da Vinci and Michelangelo to paint all of the images of The Black Christ in Europe in the image of his son Cesare Borgia.

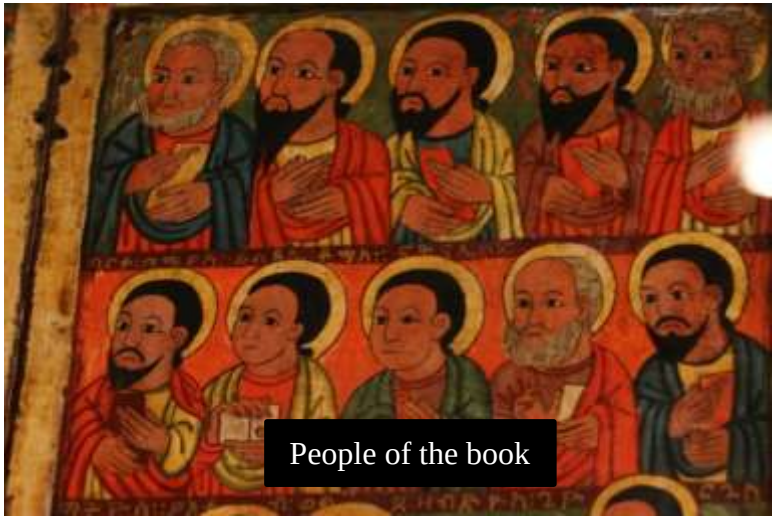

Since both of these artists were well known, a competition broke out between the two, to see who could impress the Pope more by making a new image of the Pope's son that would deceive the world into thinking that Cesare was Jesus. So the majority of the images displaying the White European looking Jesus that we see in paintings today at churches and Christian stores, is actually a picture of Cesare Borgia not the Messiah. But Leo and Michelangelo didn't just stop there, they painted all of the people of the bible to be white, deceiving the entire world of what the people of the book really looked like.

Over time, these false images have saturated the minds of the masses to such a degree that the notion of the messiah being black, sounds like a lie.

Many people, especially our people, regard the notion of the messiah and the disciples being black as an attempt to instill black pride in our race, rather than considering if it could be true or not.

America has brainwashed us so much that when you try to tell our people the truth, they can't receive it because they have been taught so long to believe in lies.

And if you're one of these people who can't receive the truth because of your pre-programmed beliefs, then don't take my word for it let's go to the scriptures and see what colour the messiah was there.

People of the book

REMEMBER:

"Prove all things" (1 Thessalonians 5:21) and "study to show yourselves approved" (2 Timothy 2:15).

THE BIBLICAL PROOF THAT THE MESSIAH IS BLACK

His head and hair were white [pure] like wool, as white as snow, and His eyes like a flame of fire; His feet were like fine brass, as if refined in a furnace, and His voice as the sound of many waters. (Revelation 1:14-15)

In the verse above, John reveals to us how the Messiah will look when he returns to bring judgment to the world. He states that the messiah's hair is white (meaning pure) and woolly and that his feet are similar to brass that was burnt in a furnace.

Brass is already brown, like a doorknob, so anything burned has to get very dark from oxidation. And since His feet were the same colour as the rest of his body, that means his skin complexion was dark brass.

This is exactly the colour that Josephus described him as being. But let's go to the so-called old testament of the bible and get another witness of how the messiah appears.

"I watched till thrones were put in place, and the Ancient of Days was seated; His garment was white as snow, and the hair of His head was like pure wool. His throne was a fiery flame, its wheels a burning fire. – Daniel 7:9

In the verse above, Daniel agrees 100% with John that the messiah has pure woolly hair and we all know that we black people are the only ones with woolly hair.

Solomon's declaration, I am black, but comely, O ye daughters of Jerusalem' (Song of Solomon l:5), is often cited as referring to Christ.

According to the bible itself, then, Jesus Christ was a black man.

So don't let anyone to fool you into thinking that the messiah was white; it is a lie from the pits of hell we have been brainwashed since we arrived here.

…He is a root out of a dry ground; there was nothing beautiful or majestic about his physical appearance and when we shall see him, there is no beauty that we should desire him. – Isaiah 53:2

In the verse above, Prophet Isaiah stated clearly in his description of Jesus before his birth to be 100% black man which is completely opposite of the blue eyed, blond haired, handsome, cute, super attractive white messiah we see in churches all across the World.

Some might say, "well so what if the Messiah is black, colour doesn't matter" but that is an ignorant point of view. If colour didn't matter, then why did they go through all of the trouble to paint our Messiah their colour?

Obviously colour matters! If it didn't, they would have left him black, and told our ancestor's the truth about who the people of the book were. Instead, they told them lies so they could pass those lies down to us in hopes that we would never find out that YESHUA (whom the world calls Jesus) was black and that we are God's chosen people, whom the entire bible was written about.

CHAPTER SEVEN

FALSE IMAGES OF CHRIST DISPLAYED IN MOST CHURCHES AROUND THE WORLD, THE CONSPIRACY AND DECEPTION THEORY

FALSE IMAGES OF CHRIST

Cesare Borgia is in the book entitled Triptych of Poisoners, and is also in the book entitled Cesare Borgia His Life and Times by Sarah Bradford.

Between 1502 and 1503, he employed Leonardo da Vinci as a military architect and engineer, in which him and Leonardo da Vinci became intimate instantaneously, they were lovers. To express his love towards Cesare, Leonardo painted many pictures of him.

Cesare's Father Rodrigo Borgia, who later became Pope Alexander VI, under the authority of the Catholic Church Elite, had his son picture put up as Jesus Christ in the Western World.

Cesare had sex with his own sister Lucrezia, and he killed his brother Giovanni in 1497, and this is the man whom the Catholic Church gave their consent to allowing his picture to be put up and portrayed as Jesus Christ to deceive the whole world to think Christ was European.

What most people don't know is, there was a competition during the time called the Renaissance period, between Leonardo da Vinci and the well-known Michelangelo.

The competition was to see who could impress the king by a making a new image of the King's son that would deceive the world, in which Leonardo da Vinci won the competition.

The original King James Bible of 1611 had the Apocrypha in it, but in 1928 under the Vatican, they made an agreement to take 14 books out of the King James holy bible. Why you might ask, well because thousands of years before they put this image up to be Christ, they found out that it was written of in the Wisdom of Solomon located in the Apocrypha, that they would do this and the reason for it. So knowing this was written of in the Wisdom of Solomon, the Roman Catholic Church took it out of the bible so the people wouldn't figure out their deception. It is a noted fact that when they did this, they knew exactly what Christ people really looked like, they knew Christ and his people were not Europeans, but instead were actually Hebrews, who were dark brown people.

So let's find out in the bible first what Satan was going to do, and then will find out what exactly was written in the Wisdom of Solomon that the Apocrypha had to be taken out and credited as unscriptural and not divinely inspired, by the Catholic Church.

Question: So what is written of in the bible that Satan would do?

Revelation 12:9 - And the great dragon was cast out, that old serpent, called the Devil, and Satan, which deceiveth the whole world: he was cast out into the earth, and his angels were cast out with him.

FYI: So it is written that Satan would deceive the whole world, in which he is doing this through the Catholic Church and through the so called children of God called the Jews, who are really the children of Satan according to Revelation 2:9 and 3:9. So now we know Satan plan is to deceive the whole world and we know that through the Catholic Church and the so called Jews are whom he is using to execute his plan.

So now let's examine what was written in the Apocrypha that was so critical to our knowledge, that it had to be taken out and defamed as being unbiblical and not divinely inspired.

Question: This image that we see is said to be Christ and is portrayed all over the world as Christ, but what says the word of God about it?

Wisdom of Solomon 14:8 - But that which is made with hands is cursed, as well it, as he that made it: he, because he made it; and it, because, being corruptible, it was called god.

FYI: Scripture says that which is made with hands is cursed, but why would it be so? Isaiah 2:8 - Their land also is full of idols; they worship the work of their own hands, that which their own fingers have made: Because the image that they put up, they called it Christ, which therefore it not being Christ made it a curse and a sin unto them because they themselves made it with their own hands and fingers. So therefore by calling it Christ, they give glory unto another and not the true and living God, therefore they worship it and give honour to it as being God which makes it idolatry.

So being corruptible, this image was called God, so when the true people would begin to desire to learn about Christ, they would be told hey worship this guy, then they would ask who is he, and they would be told he's Christ.

Question: What else is written?

Wisdom of Solomon 14:9 - For the ungodly and his ungodliness are both alike hateful unto God.

Wisdom of Solomon 14:10 - For that which is made shall be punished together with him that made it.

FYI: So the image that the Catholic Church allowed to be put up as Christ, will be destroyed, and also them and everyone who had a hand in pushing this deception unto the people, so there is a judgment awaiting them. They didn't do this to be nice, they had a motive behind pushing this deception which was mentally driving them to push a belief into the mindset of the people, in which they were pushing this during the Renaissance period.

Question: So now knowing that this image is idolatry and an idol of the heathens, what else is written about this?

Wisdom of Solomon 14:11 - Therefore even upon the idols of the Gentiles shall there be a visitation: because in the creature of God they are become an abomination, and stumbling blocks to the souls of men, and a snare to the feet of the unwise.

FYI: So by them doing this, they are an abomination unto God because in doing so, this image would become a stumbling block to the souls of men, and a snare to the feet of the unwise, how so? Because they knew Christ and his people wasn't European, so they knew that if they put up images of European people, then the true people would think the images are actually the people they are reading of in the bible. They knew they would open their bibles and see all these images of people who didn't resemble their skin colour, but yet would see their family following this man who is supposed to be Christ, and see them believing that the people in these images were actually the people of Christ, and would feel excluded from the bible.

So then they knew the true people would vary away from the bible and lose interest in it because they would consider it to be the white's man book, which this was part of their plan it is psychology at its best form.

Because without a race that profess Christ so deeply like Africa having any biblical connection to coincide with their spirituality, they therefore will have no identity which would reverse their perception of self into a form of hatred towards others of their skin tone. Which is why BLACK ON BLACK CRIME IS HIGH, because they can't look at each other and see they are one, which is also why BLACK PEOPLE LEARN TO HATE, CHEAT, MANIPULATE THEMSELVES AND FIGHT EACH OTHER DIABOLICALLY, but love all those who hate them, thus creating a stumbling block to the souls of men. Many including some of my blood relatives and friends now make caricature of Christianity by choosing to be Atheists or Esotericists.

Question: So in the creation of this images and other images portraying Christ and his people as European, what came from this?

Wisdom of Solomon 14:12 - For the devising of idols was the beginning of spiritual fornication, and the invention of them the corruption of life.

Wisdom of Solomon 14:13 - For neither were they from the beginning, neither shall they be forever.

FYI: So in creating the false images of Christ and his people as Europeans, and worshipping them as Christ and his people, doing so was the beginning of spiritual fornication. Why, because now when the people are not yet of Christ but learning of him, they are actually loving other gods whom the people aren't espoused to, therefore they cheating on the true Christ with other gods spiritually, because they giving them time and love and affection and praise and worship as if they are the true Christ. But these images weren't here in the beginning, and neither shall they remain upon the earth forever.

Question: So how did these false images get here?

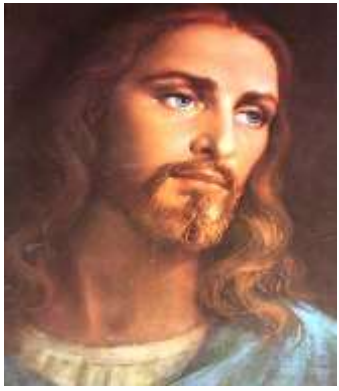

Wisdom of Solomon 14:14 - For by the vain glory of men they entered into the world, and therefore shall they come shortly to an end.

FYI: Scripture says by the vain glory of men these images entered into the world, and surely they shall soon come to an end in this world.

Question: So where does Cesare Borgia and his father Rodrigo Borgia come in the picture?

Wisdom of Solomon 14:15 - For a father afflicted with untimely mourning, when he hath made an image of his child soon taken away, now honoured him as a god, which was then a dead man, and delivered to those that were under him ceremonies and sacrifices.

FYI: A Father afflicted with untimely mourning, that's Rodrigo Borgia, when he made an image of his child, that's in reference to his son Cesare, image put up to be Christ, which is how they honoured him as a God though he was unknown at the time in Rome, thus making him dead.

They used this false image of Cesare as Christ, and they brought forth a false teaching and ceremonies and sacrifices and holidays all along with this image, to deceive the people to believe these things were of this guy whom they were portraying as Christ.

Question: So what else came along with this the false Christ?

Wisdom of Solomon 14:16 - Thus in process of time an ungodly custom grown strong was kept as a law, and graven images were worshipped by the commandments of kings.

FYI: From this false image, an ungodly custom grown strong was kept as a law, and that custom was Christmas, in which they told you it was the birthday of Christ.

And they made Jesus pictures and Mary pictures and crosses and all forms of idolatry to resemble biblical things to appear European to support their demonic intentions.

Question: What else is written?

Wisdom of Solomon 14:17 - Whom men could not honour in presence, because they dwelt far off, they took the counterfeit of his visage from far, and made an express image of a king whom they honoured, to the end that by this their forwardness they might flatter him that was absent, as if he were present.

FYI: Not everybody could honour this guy in the image as Christ in person, because some of the people lived far away. So they took this false image of Christ back to their native lands with them, and they made unto themselves images of other gods whom they could honour closely, so that they may worship their respective god in the images as if they were present.

What did the people do? 2 Kings 17:29 - Howbeit every nation made gods of their own, and put them in the houses of the high places which the Samaritans had made, every nation in their cities wherein they dwelt. Proved that!

Question: What else is written?

Wisdom of Solomon 14:18 - Also the singular diligence of the artificer did help to set forward the ignorant to more superstition.

Wisdom of Solomon 14:19 - For he, peradventure willing to please one in authority, forced all his skill to make the resemblance of the best fashion.

FYI: Now remember the competition during the time called the Renaissance period, between Leonardo da Vinci and the well-known Michelangelo, was to see who could impress the king by a making a new image of the King's son that would deceive the world, in which Leonardo da Vinci won. So by him winning and creating with his hands this false image of Christ, he set forward those who had not knowledge of this, meaning he caused them to have an irrational belief arising from ignorance of not knowing who this guy is that they are really worshipping. So Leonardo being willing to please Rodrigo Borgia, the Pope in authority at the time also the father of Cesare Borgia, he compelled all this talent to make the image resemble his son Cesare Borgia in the best way possible.

Question: What else is written?

Wisdom of Solomon 14:20 - And so the multitude, allured by the grace of the work, took him now for a god, which a little before was but honoured.

Wisdom of Solomon 14:21 - And this was an occasion to deceive the world: for men, serving either calamity or tyranny, did ascribe unto stones and stocks the incommunicable name.

FYI: So after impressing him, the multitude of people were drawn by the elegance and beauty of this image, and accepted it and took it to be their God, which beforehand wasn't revered by all as a God. And the reason they did this, was to deceive the world, and men begin to attribute this image and give credit to it, by not revealing to others who this guy is that's supposed to be God, thus fulfilling Revelation 12:9 - And the great dragon was cast out, that old serpent, called the Devil, and Satan, which deceiveth the whole world: he was cast out into the earth, and his angels were cast out with him.

So satan with the help of the Catholic Church has deceived the whole world into thinking this image is Christ, when it's really Cesare Borgia. What did Satan say? Isaiah 14:14 - I will ascend above the heights of the clouds;

I will be like the most High. So through this false image of Christ, Satan gets the glory as if he was God, like he said. So now you see why the Catholic Church took the Apocrypha out of the holy bible, they didn't want to get exposed, but little did they know I would come along one day. The whole world is deceived, they got this image on movies, cds and dvds, t shirts, key chains, necklaces, bracelets, ornaments, stockings, pictures, coffee mugs, pens, air fresheners, wrist bands, watches, rugs, bill boards, windows, and even tattooed on their body, thinking it's Christ when really it's Cesare Borgia.

Question: So what should the people know and do?

Deuteronomy 4:15 - Take ye therefore good heed unto yourselves; for ye saw no manner of similitude on the day that the LORD spake unto you in Horeb out of the midst of the fire:

FYI: Ask yourself, if the people didn't see no image of Christ, but only heard the voice of the words, then how did they know what he looked like?

Because as I have just proven, the images that were given by the Catholic Church are supposed to be Christ, but yet they don't look as how the bible says Christ looked. Who is the racists?

Question: Why should they take good heed, what if they make them a similitude and say it's Christ?

Deuteronomy 4:16 - Lest ye corrupt yourselves, and make you a graven image, the similitude of any figure, the likeness of male or female,

FYI: Deuteronomy 4:15 warned us to take heed because we never saw what Christ looked like, and Deuteronomy 4:16 tells us why, because if we make ourselves a graven image, the similitude of any figure, the likeness of male or female, we are corrupted. What is a graven image? Graven Image - a material effigy that is worshipped as a god.

So those who have the blonde hair blue eyed picture who is supposed to be Christ, and those who have the black face dreadlock hair picture who is supposed to be Christ, and those who have any picture that is supposed to be Christ, you are corrupted and an idolatry worshipper.

Bible describes Christ and his people as people of colour (dark), but that doesn't give no one the right to make an image of what the bible says they look like. Repent before you burn in hell!

Question: What else does the scripture say?

1 John 4:12 - No man hath seen God at any time. If we love one another, God dwelleth in us, and his love is perfected in us.

FYI: No man hath seen God at anytime, so how is it that the world has pictures who they say is God, and believe they are God, despite the scripture saying no man hath seen God at anytime?

Revelation 12:9 - And the great dragon was cast out, that old serpent, called the Devil, and Satan, which deceiveth the whole world: he was cast out into the earth, and his angels were cast out with him.

FYI: Because the devil has deceived the whole world! If your pastor has a picture that is supposed to be Christ in the church, or home, or condones them in society as being Christ, he is a false prophet come out from among him and be ye separate.

2 Corinthians 4:13 - We having the same spirit of faith, according as it is written, I believed, and therefore have I spoken; we also believe, and therefore speak;

FYI: We have the same spirit of faith, according as it is written, we believe, therefore we speak what's written, so if it's not written that Christ was white with blonde hair and blue eyes, then how do you have faith if what you believe is not written? You are not even saved!

Macquirelatory - If what colour he was didn't matter, then it wouldn't have been described in the bible, and when John turned, he would have said I didn't see no colour, I just see Christ. But the colour of his skin is not what's going to save us Hebrews or the Gentiles, having the spirit of God and worshipping God in spirit and truth is what's going to save us all. But don't play ignorant.

Revelation 2:9

I know thy works, and tribulation, and poverty, (but thou art rich) and I know the blasphemy of them which say they are Jews, and are not, but are the synagogue of Satan.

The Jewish nation of today are Edomites like most white people but they converted to Judaism in 700AD they are not real Jews.

Jeremiah 14:2

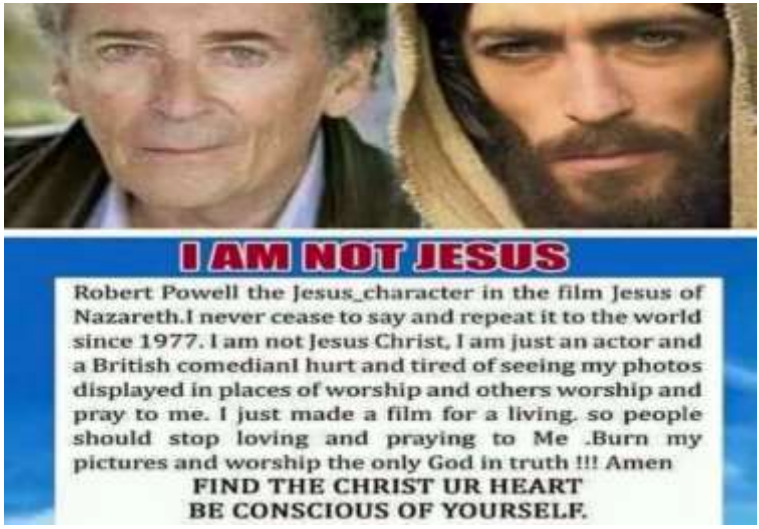

Judah mourns, and its gates languish; they are black unto the ground; The word black in Hebrew is qadar which means 'Dark Skinned'

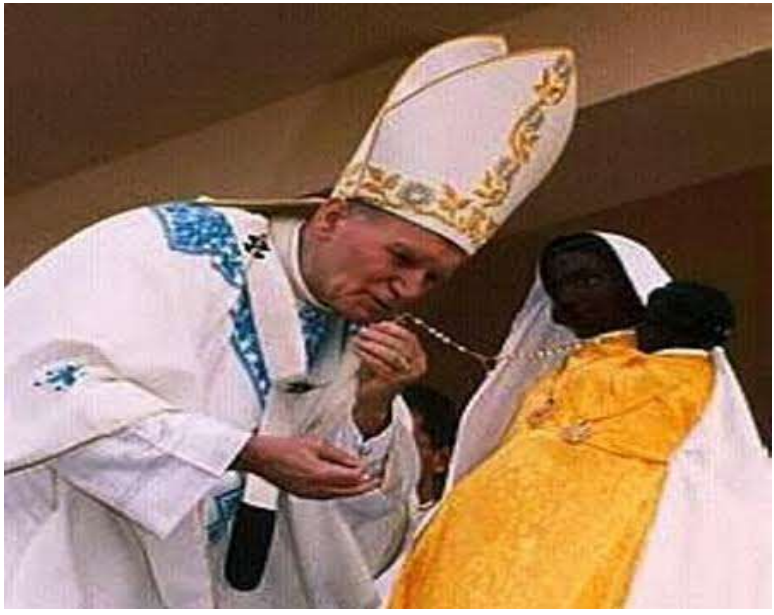

Revelation 3:9

Behold, I will make them of the synagogue of Satan, which say they are Jews, and are not, but do lie; behold, I will make them to come and worship before thy feet, and to know that I have loved thee.

WORSHIP THE LIVING GOD NOT IMAGES

But an hour is coming, and is now here, when the true worshipers will worship the Father in spirit and truth. Yes, the Father wants such people to worship Him. John 4:23

It is not lawful to give religious worship to any creature whatsoever it is not lawful to make an image of God.

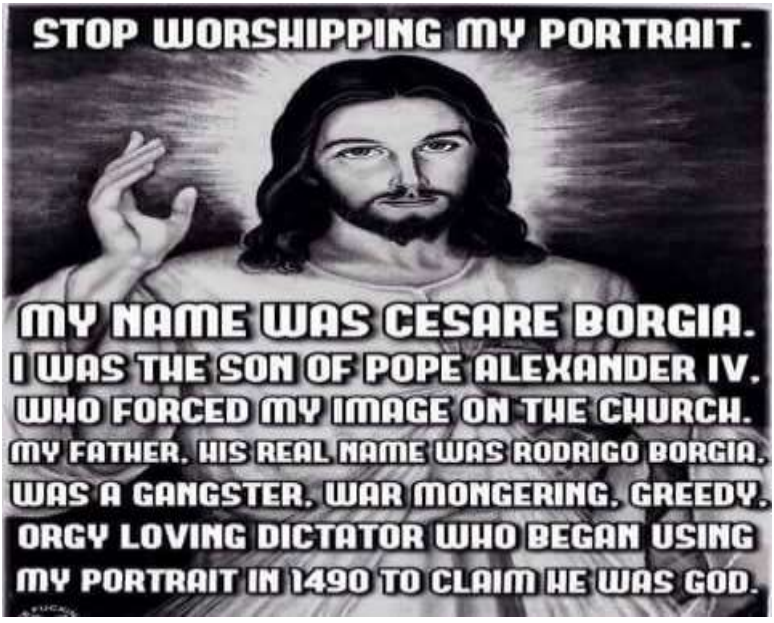

It is not lawful to worship God as represented by an image, or to direct our worship of Him to an image. It is not lawful to worship images, by doing it corporally, as idolaters do, though we pretend to keep our hearts to God. We don't worship an image, we worship a Spirit, a living God in heaven.

GRAVEN IMAGES (THE HEINOUS CRIME)

The Second Commandment is thou shalt not make any graven image. It is idolatry to worship false gods or the true God by statues or pictures.

Right away you see when Catholics bow down and pray to images of Mary it is idolatry. God is not wood, stone, or metal and he will not be worshipped as if he was a man-made item.

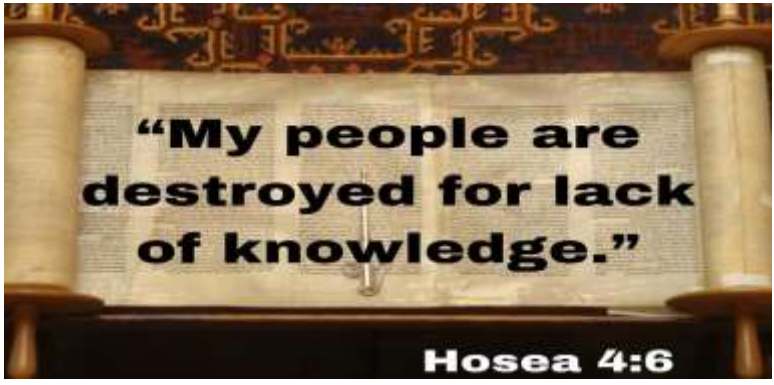

God is extremely serious when it comes to idols. There will be a day when many people who claim to be Christian will be caught lacking and will be thrown into hell for their blatant idolatry against God. Do not be that person who tries to twist Scripture and find any way possible to do something that is not supposed to be done.

Nobody wants to listen to the truth anymore, but always remember God cannot be mocked.

The senior Pastor at DAYSPRING ASSEMBLY in Lagos state of Nigeria (Pst. Harrison Chiemerie Charles) explored the scripture with the unction of the Holy Spirit to debunk the false and fake images of Jesus Christ in the walls of many churches in Africa and the Western world.

MESSIAH BORN IN A CAVE IN ETHIOPIA UNTIL CHANGED BY NICEA IN 325AD

According to Dr Yosef Ben Jochannan a respected scholar. The Messiah was born in a cave in modern day Ethiopia before being changed by Rome in 325AD at the big meeting of the Council Of Nicea. Research shows most caves to be in Nth Ethiopia. Our research shows that to be Judea

KUNAMA TRIBE IN ETHIOPIA & ERITREA POSSIBLY THE ISRAELITES WHO STAYED

Intense research shows that the Kunama tribe who is known as the most indigenous tribe in modern day Sth Eritrea is the Israelites that stayed in the original land of Judea. Their is also high potential that they are the same people as the Kumana people in St Thomas in Jamaica.

WHAT DOES THE BIBLE SAY?

1. Exodus 20:4-6 "You must not make for yourself an idol of any kind or an image of anything in the heavens or on the earth or in the sea. You must not bow down to them or worship them, for I, the Lord your God, am a jealous God who will not tolerate your affection for any other gods. I lay the sins of the parents upon their children; the entire family is affected—even children in the third and fourth generations of those who reject me. But I lavish unfailing love for a thousand generations on those who love me and obey my commands.

2. Deuteronomy 4:23-24 Be careful not to forget the covenant of the LORD your God that he made with you; do not make for yourselves an idol in the form of anything the LORD your God has forbidden. For the LORD your God is a consuming fire, a jealous God.

3. Exodus 34:14 Do not worship any other god, for the LORD, whose name is Jealous, is a jealous God.

4. Colossians 3:5 Therefore consider the members of your earthly body as dead to immorality, impurity, passion, evil desire, and greed, which amounts to idolatry.

5. Deuteronomy 4:16-18 so that you do not act corruptly and make a graven image for yourselves in the form of any figure, the likeness of male or female, the likeness of any animal that is on the earth, the likeness of any winged bird that flies in the sky, the likeness of anything that creeps on the ground, the likeness of any fish that is in the water below the earth.

6. Leviticus 26:1 “Do not make idols or set up carved images, or sacred pillars, or sculptured stones in your land so you may worship them. I am the LORD your God.

7. Psalm 97:7 All who worship images are put to shame, those who boast in idols– worship him, all you gods!

WORSHIP GOD IN SPIRIT AND IN TRUTH

8. John 4:23-24 Yet a time is coming and has now come when the true worshipers will worship the Father in the Spirit and in truth, for they are the kind of worshipers the Father seeks. God is spirit, and his worshipers must worship in the Spirit and in truth."

GOD SHARES HIS GLORY WITH NO ONE

9. Isaiah 42:8 "I am the LORD; that is my name! I will not give my glory to anyone else, nor share my praise with carved idols.

10. Revelation 19:10 Then I fell down at his feet to worship him, but he said, "No, don't worship me. I am a servant of God, just like you and your brothers and sisters who testify about their faith in Jesus. Worship only God. For the essence of prophecy is to give a clear witness for Jesus."

REMINDERS

11. Isaiah 44:8-11 Do not tremble, do not be afraid. Did I not proclaim this and foretell it long ago? You are my witnesses. Is there any God besides me? No, there is no other Rock; I know not one." All who make idols are nothing, and the things they treasure are worthless. Those who would speak up for them are blind; they are ignorant, to their own shame. Who shapes a god and casts an idol, which can profit nothing? People who do that will be put to shame; such craftsmen are only human beings. Let them all come together and take their stand; they will be brought down to terror and shame.

12. Habakkuk 2:18 "Of what value is an idol carved by a craftsman? Or an image that teaches lies? For the one who makes it trusts in his own creation; he makes idols that cannot speak.

13. Jeremiah 10:14-15 Every man is stupid and without knowledge; every goldsmith is put to shame by his idols, for his images are false, and there is no breath in them.

They are worthless, a work of delusion; at the time of their punishment they shall perish.

14. Leviticus 19:4 Do not put your trust in idols or make metal images of gods for yourselves. I am the LORD your God.

GOD'S KINGDOM

15. Ephesians 5:5 For of this you can be sure: No immoral, impure or greedy person—such a person is an idolater– has any inheritance in the kingdom of Christ and of God.

16. 1 Corinthians 6:9-10 Or do you not know that the unrighteous will not inherit the kingdom of God? Do not be deceived: neither the sexually immoral, nor idolaters, nor adulterers, nor men who practice homosexuality, nor thieves, nor the greedy, nor drunkards, nor revilers, nor swindlers will inherit the kingdom of God.

END TIMES (ABOMINATION)

17. 1 Timothy 4:1 Now the Spirit expressly says that in later times some will depart from the faith by devoting themselves to deceitful spirits and teachings of demons,

18. 2 Timothy 4:3-4 For the time is coming when people will not endure sound teaching, but having itching ears they will accumulate for themselves teachers to suit their own passions, and will turn away from listening to the truth and wander off into myths.

BIBLE EXAMPLES

19. Judges 17:4 Yet he restored the money unto his mother; and his mother took two hundred shekels of silver, and gave them to the founder, who made thereof a graven image and a molten image: and they were in the house of Micah.

20. Nahum 1:14 And this is what the LORD says concerning the Assyrians in Nineveh: “You will have no more children to carry on your name. I will destroy all the idols in the temples of your gods. I am preparing a grave for you because you are despicable!”

21. Judges 18:30 And the children of Dan set up the graven image: and Jonathan, the son of Gershom, the son of Manasseh, he and his sons were priests to the tribe of Dan until the day of the captivity of the land.

JESUS is only the WAY, the TRUTH, and the LIFE; no man comes to the Father, except through HIM, according to John 14:6.

Why make images in the sanctuary and proclaim them as channel to the Father?

CHAPTER EIGHT

JESUS WASN'T WHITE AND WHY THAT MATTERS

"Historically, white Jesus has been used to oppress and erase the histories of people of colour (Blacks)" -Taryn Finley

The traditional image of Jesus as a blue-eyed, blonde-haired white man is historically inaccurate. In her latest video for MTV Decoded, Franchesa Ramsey tells us how this picture of Jesus came to be even though the Bible doesn't mention race.

"This globally recognized image of Jesus didn't come from Bethlehem," she said in her video. "This man is actually a 20th century American."

The first images of Jesus as an adult date back to the fourth century, showing him with short hair, a beard and "dark" skin, Ramsey said. BBC's television series "Son of God" reconstructed Jesus' facial features using forensics, early artistic portrayals and ethnic traits to get a better idea of what Jesus may have looked like and came up with this:

It wasn't until the Middle Ages when artists began depicting Jesus as white because Christians didn't like the idea of Jesus having Jewish features, even though he was Jewish. Ramsey also said that many speculate that Biblical passages that referred to lightness symbolizing purity and darkness symbolizing sin and evil played into how people perceived Jesus' appearance.

"Again, we see this narrative of dark skin people being bad, thus needing to be tamed or killed in order to confirm to the good, or white, standard," Ramsey said.

She touches on the notion of white supremacy being used in Christianity to colonize and control before and during slavery. Despite white people using Christianity to justify their wrongdoings, black people found their own way of practicing it to seek liberation.

Historically, white Jesus has been used to oppress and erase the histories of people of colour in a way that Korean Jesus or black Jesus has not.

Ramsey's point isn't that Christianity is bad because it's been misused to oppress. But rather that white power structures excluded images of Jesus with a darker complexion to spread racial bias.

"While a Korean or a black Jesus might not be historically accurate as black history has been altered just so a blonde-haired, blue-eyed Jesus is not historically accurate.

People of colour (Blacks) have the right to see themselves in their religion, especially after centuries of being taught and forced to worship a God that doesn't look like them."

Why Jesus' Skin Colour Matters That He was an ethnic minority shapes how we minister today. A report from Christena Cleveland associate professor of the practice of reconciliation at Duke University's Divinity School, North Carolina, USA.

After one of my recent lectures, a Christian college student approached me and asked if black people are uncomfortable with the fact that Jesus is white. I responded, "Jesus is not white. The Jesus of history likely looked more like me, a black woman, than you, a white woman."

I wasn't shocked by this student's assumption that Jesus was of European descent, or the certitude with which she stated it.

When I am in US Christian spaces, I encounter this assumption so often that I've come to believe it is the default assumption about Jesus' appearance.

Indeed, white Jesus is everywhere: a 30-foot-tall white Savior stands at the center of Biola University's campus; white Jesus is featured on most Christmas cards; and the recent History Channel mini-series The Bible dramatically introduced a white Jesus to more than 100 million viewers. In most of the Western world, Jesus is white.

While Christ the Lord transcends skin colour and racial divisions, white Jesus has real consequences.

In all likelihood, if you close your eyes in prayers and picture Jesus, you'll imagine a white man. Without conscious intention or awareness, many of us have become disciples of a white Jesus.

Not only is white Jesus inaccurate, he also can inhibit our ability to honour the image of God in people who aren't white.

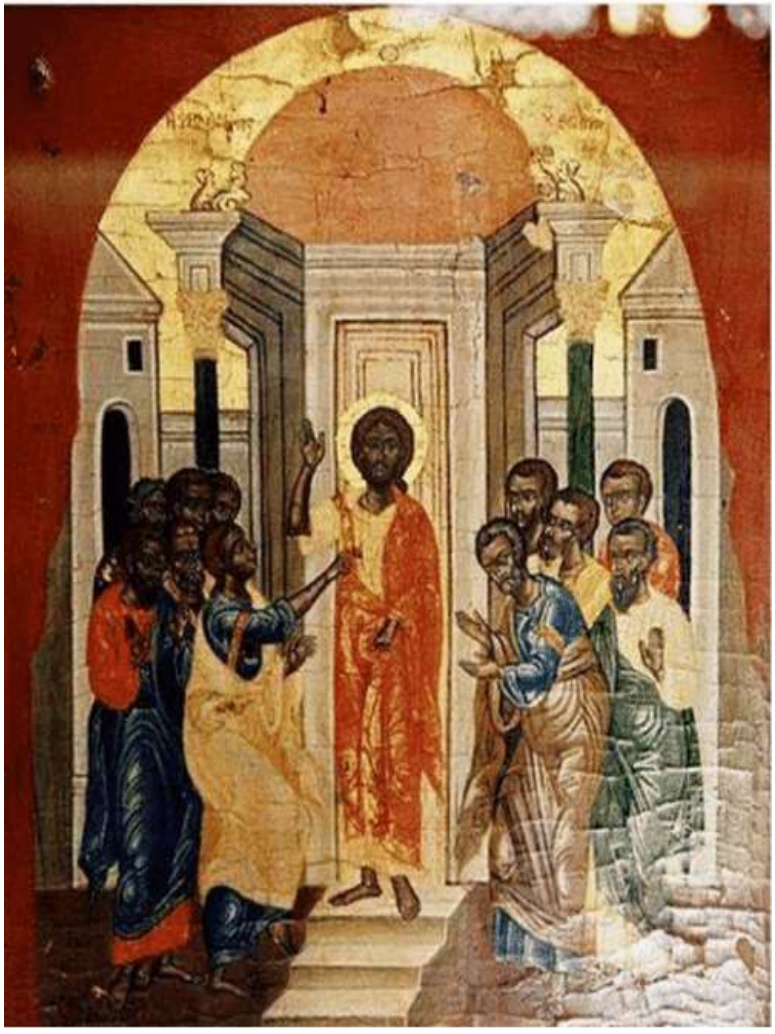

Jesus of Nazareth likely had a darker complexion than we imagine, not unlike the olive skin common among Middle Easterners today.

Princeton biblical scholar James Charlesworth goes so far as to say Jesus was "most likely dark brown and sun-tanned."

The earliest depictions of an adult Jesus showed him with an "Oriental cast" and a brown complexion.

But by the sixth century, some Byzantine artists started picturing Jesus with white skin, a beard, and hair parted down the middle. This image became the standard.

"Earliest known image of Jesus Christ, from the Coptic Museum in Cairo, Egypt. This painting of Jesus is older than the image of the black Jesus Christ in the Church of Rome which is from the 6th century. "

Black History Month - Oldest Portrayal of Jesus the Christ

In the colonial period, Western Europe for the most part exported its image of a white Christ worldwide, and white Jesus often shaped the way Christians understood Jesus' ministry and mission. Some 19th-century Christians, eager to justify the cruelties of slavery, went out of their way to present Jesus as white. By negating his true identity as a dark-skinned, oppressed minority, slaveholders were better able to justify the master- slave hierarchy and forget Jesus' ministry to set the oppressed free (Luke 4:18).

As a Jew, Jesus was an ethnic minority in the Roman Empire. Jews were marginalized by Romans, Greeks, and other non-Jewish groups in many imperial cities.

As an infant, Jesus was a target of ruler-sanctioned infanticide, fled to Egypt as a refugee, and faced Roman tax collectors' exploitation. Throughout his life, he knew the pain of being a member of an ethnic group whose culture, religion, and experiences were marginalized by those in power.

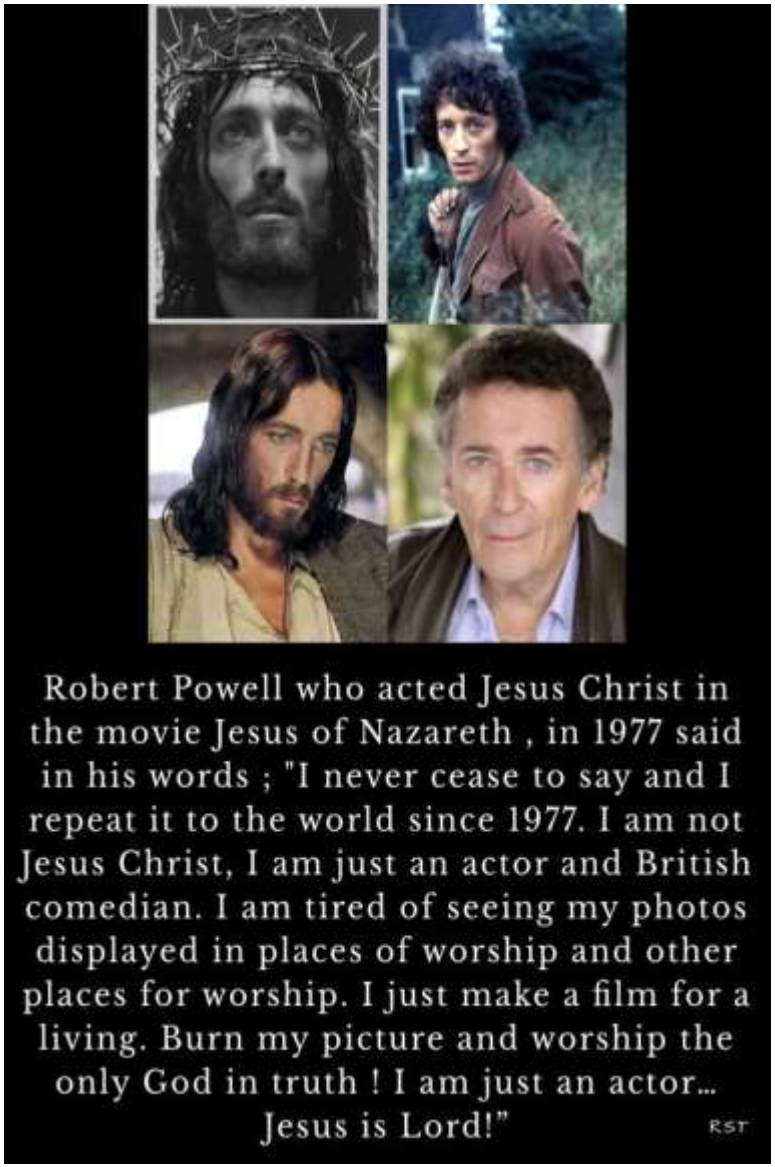

Since Jesus belonged to an ethnic minority, we are compelled to re-evaluate who Jesus was and with whom he identified as he fulfilled his mission. When people who were on the outskirts gathered, Jesus was among them—not only because he ministered to them but because he was one of them. As an ethnic minority, Jesus didn't simply care about people who were victims of Rome-sanctioned violence, he was a victim of Rome- sanctioned violence.

Jesus didn't simply care about refugees, Jesus was a refugee. Jesus didn't simply care about the poor, he was poor. To Jesus, ministry meant knowing from the inside the pain of society's most marginalized.

In order to follow Jesus in his mission today, we often must choose a love that is based in solidarity. Many well-meaning Christians minister across a social gap, but whites can minister to people of colour without truly seeing them as equals, and higher-income people can serve lower-income people while knowing little about their daily lives. Jesus' ethnic identity and social location require that we must not only minister to people who are marginalized, we must stand with them as Jesus stands with them.

This involves seeing non-European cultural perspectives and customs as valid and valuable, listening to people who are marginalized, and demonstrating with our words and actions that both spiritual and social liberation are central to the gospel.

But first, those who still perceive a white Christ must ask whether they can and will worship a dark-skinned Jesus.

Robert Powell who acted Jesus Christ in the movie Jesus of Nazareth , in 1977 said in his words ; "I never cease to say and I repeat it to the world since 1977. I am not Jesus Christ, I am just an actor and British comedian. I am tired of seeing my photos displayed in places of worship and other places for worship. I just make a film for a living. Burn my picture and worship the only God in truth ! I am just an actor... Jesus is Lord!"
RST

In Song of Solomon chapter 1:5-6. King Solomon is black certainly his father David will also be black. And if David is black, then his descendants will be black. Jesus is the root of David as it is written in Revelation 22:16, therefore Jesus is definitely black too. But this book has nothing to do with race or black pride; Jesus was, is and will remain a combination of all races and represents all because He is God that works in mysterious ways.

*According to Matthew 24:14, Jesus will not return until the revelation of the mystery, which was kept secret since the world began, the mystery to incorporate the Gentiles into the kingdom in relation with the true Jews is made manifest and the gospel of the kingdom preached in the whole world as a testimony to all nations, and then the end will come. John 4:22

If we don't consider or regard his natural skin by birth then we may be deceived by the coming of the Anti-Christ and our brethren in Catholic Church will never stop to bow and worship the image of Cesare Borgia who they painted as Jesus and turn his sanctuary to shrine of idols. Deuteronomy 5:8, 1 John 2:18, 2 Thessalonians 2:3-4, Daniel 7:25

And Pilate asked him, "Are you the King of the Jews?" And he answered him, "You have said so." Mark 15:2

"You are a king, then!" said Pilate. Jesus answered, "You say that I am a king. In fact, the reason I was born and came into the world is to testify to the truth. Everyone on the side of truth listens to me." John 18:37

Solomon's declaration, I am black, but comely, O ye daughters of Jerusalem' (Sol, I, 5),* is often cited as referring to Christ. According to the bible itself, then, Jesus Christ was a black man.

All of our lives, we have been taught that Jesus was a blue eyed, blond haired, white man. This image of a white messiah appears in churches all across the World, especially in the Roman Catholic Church.

But as accepted as this image which has been presented to us may be, IT IS FALSE. Not only was the messiah black, but everyone mentioned in the bible was black. From Adam to Paul, the writings in the book that we call the "bible" were all written by people of colour.

Although colour is a subject that is highly avoided in today's white supremacist society; the Bible contains detailed narratives on the physical appearances and skin colour of God's chosen people the Hebrew Israelites. Please note that this book has nothing to do with race or black pride, this is only about getting the truth out to our people so they can wake up from the lies.

Why Images of White Jesus have obviously been used to promote the idea that White is best race thereby making the Blacks feel less important which is the reason behind many Skin pigmentation, Skin bleaching, skin Lightening and surgeries among black people to feel among like Lt. Michael Jackson and others who were lured by Mammon. The act of imposing a white messiah has the most terrible effects on people who do not look like that. Instead of us having dominion over the fish of the sea, and over the fowl of the air, and over the cattle, and over all the earth - We stoop so low as to worship idols made by men hanging in most churches especially the Roman catholic churches and others.

I'm reminded of Toni Morrison's magnificent novel "The Bluest Eye," where the young girl believes that whiteness is beautiful.

If Jesus is white and you're not, what does that say about your relationship with him?

What does it mean that Christ came for "all," if you feel left out? Representations of the saints are often just as bad. They're almost always white even, say, St. Augustine, who hailed from North Africa.

Images dishonour God, for they obscure his glory. According to Charles Hodge "Idolatry consists not only in the worship of false gods, but also in the worship of the true God by images."

In line with this established fact, you did not see any proclaimed pictorial representation of the said black Jesus in this Book from the author. This means that we are not to make use of visual or pictorial representations of the true God, or of any person of the Trinity, for the purposes of Christian worship.

The commandment thus deals not with the object of worship, but with the manner of it, what it tells us is that statues and pictures of the One whom we worship are not to be used as an aid to worshipping him.

But even more important than the pictorial images of Jesus we see in the world is seeing Christ alive in every person. Especially those who are marginalized, those who are persecuted or those who are victimized in any way. Christ lives in them.

It is more important to find Christ in every person because each of us is an express image of Him. Jesus died and rose for everyone irrespective of colour or race.

If you are a victim of idolatry due to ignorance and yet to make peace with God, kindly give your life to Him and be saved by saying this prayer:

Lord Jesus, I am a sinner in need of your forgiveness please come into my life and be the Lord of my life. I shall worship you henceforth in spirit and in truth according to your written word. Amen!

This book is an inconvenient truth that you may not be ready to read.

It was first published in the year 2016. I got the inspiration for this title after my 21 days prayer and fasting. Heaven was opened and I saw the mind of God toward idolatry which consists not only in the worship of FALSE gods, but also the worship of the TRUE God by images. I got the revelation of how Satan and his agents since their deportation to earth are working tirelessly to rob Jesus of His deity by deceiving mankind to worship the beast as a common practice among many churches. “Woe to the inhabitants of the earth and the sea! For the devil has come down to you, having great wrath, because he knows that he has a short time” (Rev. 12:12). “…the whole world lies under the control of the wicked one” (1 John 5:19) “The devil comes only to steal, kill and destroy” (John 10:10).

The whole idea behind this book is to redirect men back to the one and only true God; a Spirit who doesn't like to be worshipped by man-made images or statues.

Through this book, you get answers to the following:

- ✓ What is the mind of God on Idolatry which consists not only in the worship of false gods, but also in the worship of the true God by images?
- ✓ Is Jesus really a Black man from the tribe of Judah?
- ✓ If Jesus is black then does the bible support it?
- ✓ Are Black people the original Hebrew Israelites?
- ✓ Is there any forensic and scientific proof that the messiah was black?
- ✓ Who is the man in the picture that is displayed in most churches around the world?
- ✓ Why is the colour of Jesus very important in revelation of the Anti-Christ?

The answers to these all important and many more questions can be found in this book. This book is recommendable to every truth seeker who is uncomfortable with the lies, deception and conspiracy theories orchestrated by the wicked one and his agents to rob Jesus of his deity and true identity. It is not designed to be user friendly and it is an affront to racism living in the walls of churches and in the West. If Jesus is truly a black man according to the scriptures and evidences then it means that the real children of Abraham are also black.

This book aims to challenge the reader especially the African mind to know that the Messiah was a black man who suffered for all black and white (Isaiah 53:5) so that all may be free from operation and victimization. No nation should be socio-economically and politically enslaved by another.

Let the truth be taught and the black man will rise again from the dust of lies and deceptions to his place of honour and dignity.

I frown at the high level of ignorance and idol worshipping of images of a WHITE messiah that appears in some churches all over Africa and the Western world. The pilgrimage wastage of scarce resources by our government in the search of God in the present day Israel and Mecca by our Muslim Brethren. It is so disturbing because God is everywhere. In Genesis 1.26, God Almighty created us in His own express Image and Likeness whether black or white He is accessible and available to all Nation and people.

Why do the heathen rage and the people imagine a vain thing? Why make images of a white man and proclaim him as God? We even saw in Kenya that some gullible church pastors invited a white man who was masquerading as Jesus - exploiting innocent victims of their hard earned money while promising them heaven in return.

Indeed, you shall know the truth, and the truth shall make you free. (John 8:32)

GOD IS A SPIRIT AND THE HOUR HAS COME WHEN WE MUST WORSHIP HIM IN SPIRIT AND IN TRUTH. WE DON'T WORSHIP AN IMAGE, WE WORSHIP A SPIRIT, A LIVING GOD IN HEAVEN, AND THE CREATOR OF THE WHOLE UNIVERSE. JEHOVAH IS HIS NAME.

NOTE: This book is 100% free and given out daily on charity. God has been using it to open blind eyes that want to see how Jesus looks before they believe, bringing out prisoners from the prison, those who sit in darkness on Idolatry from the prison house, setting the captives free and preaching salvation across the nations of the world.
